Plaintiffs, (Garguilo, J.)

ORDER MODIFYING THE TEMPORARY RESTRAINING ORDER ENTERED ON MARCH 15, 2018

ALLSTATE INSURANCE COMPANY,

Defendant. -----x

THIS MATTER having been brought before the Court by defendant Allstate Insurance Company ("Allstate"), by and through its attorneys Saiber LLC, for an Order pursuant to CPLR 6314 (the "Motion") modifying the Order to Show Cause Request for a Temporary Restraining Order that was entered and filed on March 15, 2018 (NYSCEF Doc. No. 39); and upon consideration of the moving papers submitted by Allstate; and opposition and reply papers, if any; and oral argument, if any; and all prior pleadings and proceedings in this action; and for good cause shown;

IT IS on this ____ day of March, 2018, ORDERED that:

- 1. Allstate's Motion shall be, and hereby is, GRANTED.
- 2. The "Ordered" provisions of the temporary restraining order set forth on page 4 and 5 of the Order to Show Cause Request for a Temporary Restraining Order, dated March 15, 2018, (NYSCEF Doc. No. 39) shall immediately be modified pending the return date on the Order Show Cause presently scheduled for April 11, 2018 at 9:30 a.m., to provide for the following temporary restraints:

- A. The July 1, 2018 deadline for plaintiff Michael Nocella to complete the sale of the Allstate book of business shall be stayed;
- B. Allstate Exclusive Agent Daniel Bach and Allstate Licensed Sales Producers Sharlene Basso, Keith Mirra, Robert Giordano, Joseph Dito and Heather Khan (collectively "Authorized Agent and LSPs") shall be permitted to service and access information relating to existing Allstate customers who were formerly serviced by the Nocella Agency;
- C. Access required to service existing Allstate customers who were formerly serviced by the Nocella Agency shall be restored to the Nocella Agency location at 4250 Veterans Memorial Hwy, Holbrook, NY (the "Nocella Agency Location"), and the Authorized Agent and LSPs shall be permitted to access the policies and other information for such Allstate customers at the Nocella Agency Location; and
- D. Phone calls from existing Allstate customers shall be redirected back to the Nocella Agency Location, and the Authorized Agent and LSPs shall be permitted to receive such phone calls at the Nocella Agency Location;
- E. Michael Nocella and Christina Giugliano shall continue to be prohibited from servicing Allstate customers and prohibiting from accessing Allstate confidential and proprietary information, including confidential information about Allstate's customers.
- F. The agent locator function on Allstate's website shall be manually reactivated such that the Nocella Agency Location is listed on the agent locator.

3. Service of a copy of this Order Modifying the Temporary Restraining Order dated March 15, 2018 shall be made upon counsel for the plaintiffs, Anthony P. DellUniversita, Esq., and service be and hereby is deemed equivalent in all respects to service of same directly upon plaintiffs.

PURSUANT TO 22 NYCRR 202.7(F)

ALLSTATE INSURANCE COMPANY,

Defendants,

ANTHONY P. DELLUNIVERSITA, an attorney at law, duly admitted to practice before the Courts of the State of New York, hereby affirms under the penalties of perjury as follows:

I am the attorney of record for the above named plaintiffs, Michael Nocella and The Nocella Agency, hereinafter referred to as "plaintiffs". I am fully familiar with all of the facts and circumstances of this case based upon review of the file, documents pertaining to this case, and conversation with Michael Nocella.

I submit this Affirmation pursuant to 22 NYCRR 202.7(f) to evidence the fact that the within motion, brought by Order to Show Cause, is an emergency and requires immediate attention. This affirmation is submitted as required by 22 NYCRR 202.7(f).

I have notified defendant's counsel, Erin Renfro with a Notification Letter Pursuant to CPLR Rule 202.7(f), via fax to 847 326 7323, and via email to the email address for Erin Renfro, erenf@allstate.com, counsel for Allstate, in compliance of 22 NYCRR 202.7(f). See Exhibit A attached to this affirmation, which includes the letter, the fax confirmation, and email printout showing the attached notice. This office was subsequently contact by Allstate counsel, Michael Grohs, confirming receipt.

FACTS

The facts are set forth in a very specific and detailed manner in the affidavit of Michael Nocella, dated March 9, 2018, and the Court is respectfully referred to accompanying affidavit.

REQUEST FOR A TEMPORARY RESTRAINING ORDER

As set forth in the affidavit of Mr. Nocella, the defendant has wrongfully terminated the Exclusive Agency Agreement of Michael Nocella, who owns the Nocella Agency. The defendant is attempting to force Mr. Nocella to find a buyer for his business at the market value price of $1.6 million, in ninety (90) days, otherwise he will have no other option but to accept a payout from Allstate in the amount of $98,345.5, a $1,501,674.50 loss for Mr. Nocella. Allowing ninety (90) days to pass to wait and see if Mr. Nocella procures a buyer will destroy the value of his business to the point where he cannot be compensated fairly. The affidavit of Michael Nocella explains why there is no chance he can procure a buyer at $1.6 million or anything close to it due to Allstate's interference.

Also set forth Michael Nocella's affidavit is the measures levied upon him and the Nocella Agency. Defendant has shut down the Nocella Agency entirely, by cutting Mr. Nocella's access to all Allstate databases, websites and products, changing his passwords, forwarding his phone calls to another agency, but not forwarding his emails to anyone to be serviced, thereby damaging his business further; shutting down his website; taking away his Best in Company honor and the financial benefits that come with it; stating that his last commission check will be March 19, 2018.

As demonstrated in the Affidavit of Michael Nocella and the accompanying Verified Complaint, defendant has breached the Exclusive Agency Agreement by wrongfully terminating Michael Nocella; defendant was negligent in their investigation and how they treated one their agents during the investigation; defendant breached the implied contract of good faith and fair dealing; and have violated New York State Insurance Law § 3425 (j) (D).

In order to prevent any further damage, emergency relief by the way of a temporary restraining order is required.

Based upon the foregoing, it is respectfully requested that this motion be treated as an emergency and given immediate consideration and that the temporary injunctive relief requested be issued pending the hearing and determination of the Order to Show Cause.

Christina Guigliano as part of this incomplete and negligent investigation, reinstating her appointments immediately.

Preliminary Statement

3. For the reasons described below, Plaintiffs will suffer immediate and irreparable injury unless the Defendant is restrained pending a hearing on plaintiff's motion for a preliminary injunction. All state has undertaken an investigation into me and my agency for no sufficient reason. The investigator and the entire investigation and All state have negligently failed in this investigation or intentionally are targeting me and my agency for the business that has been built and is widely considered a top agency in the Company. Essentially this is an action for breach of contract by wrongful termination, breach of implied contract of good faith and fair dealing, negligence, a violation of NY Ins. Law § 3425 (j)(D) and declaratory relief. Please see a copy of the Verified Complaint annexed hereto as Exhibit A.

Factual History

4. I first began as an Allstate Insurance Agent on May 1, 2012. After working in finance industry for over a decade, and getting married and staring a family, I decided it was time for career in a more stable industry. I first began in 2012 from what Allstate calls "scratch". I started my business without an already existing book of business to generate income. I worked long hours and weekends, studying the business and after early struggles the hard work paid off and I began to really take to the business and cultivated a work ethic and environment that would become top in the company. During this time I was told by my mentors and Field Sales Leaders from Allstate that if started from "scratch" I would be able to incorporate the accounts I accumulated on my own, into any larger book of business purchased down the road. This was the first, but not the last time that Allstate would go back on their word. I was forced to sell my existing book, which included family and friend and relatives that I was providing excellent service and would not be able to anymore. So I sold what I built from nothing, and Allstate was able to bring another agent aboard that purchased my book and the manager or managers that found the buyer for my book was paid a hefty bonus. It is now a well-known fact that Allstate pushes new agents to start from scratch so that they can later add a new agent to buy that book and earn a bonus. Allstate tells their prospective new agents anything they want to hear to get them to start scratch. That is exactly what they did to me.

- 5. In September of 2014, I was able to purchase a much larger book of business that would require more staff, more office space and more hard work, but I was motivated and energize and with the support of my wife and children, I purchased an Allstate Insurance book of business for $265,000.00. Annexed hereto as Exhibit B is the purchase agreement. A book of this size had an Earned Premium value of $1.2 million dollars at the time I purchased it in 2014.
- 6. I purchased this insurance book from a private individual. I did not pay Allstate for this insurance book. Allstate did not finance or issue any loan to me to secure the purchase. Allstate does not hold any security interest in this book of business for any dealings with me personally. Allstate owns all the business produced, or the actual customer accounts, under the Allstate R3001S Exclusive Agency Agreement. Annexed hereto as Exhibit C is my Exclusive Agent Agreement. Allstate does not own the value of the insurance book. Any increased value of the insurance book is attributed to the agent owner, who is compensated in full with no payments or liability to Allstate, should an agent voluntarily sell an Allstate Insurance book. Allstate's only involvement under the agreement is they retain the right of approval for any individual or entity seeking to purchase an Allstate book. See Exhibit C, page 7, Section XVI.

Growth of the Business

7. Upon purchasing the Allstate Insurance book I immediately implemented my dedication and hard work into a business plan that would grow the business to levels I could not imagine. Achieving this did not happen overnight. I carefully hand-picked my employees, I found office space to really allow my business to thrive and invested my own money back into the business on a consistent basis. Allstate did not pay for my office, or any office equipment, Allstate did not pay my employees or any business expense, or any monetary investment back into the business. I paid approximately fifteen thousand dollars a month for marketing the business and leads, all my employees' salaries cost about forty five thousand dollars per month. In addition to that expense I pay my office rent, utilities, office supplies and payroll tax, which all cost approximately fifteen thousand per month. Over the course of the past three and a half years I roughly invested back into my own business, approximately $75,000.00 a month. That is close to three and a half million dollars over the past three and a half years. My employees and I have built this Agency into exactly what Allstate envisioned all its agencies would be.

- 8. The hard work and reinvestment into my business in three and a half years increased the value of the Allstate book by a staggering amount. I purchased this book of business with an Earned Premiums of $1.2 million dollars. My agency has worked so hard the book now has an Earned Premiums of $5.5 million dollars. The same book of business I purchased for $265,000.00, I can currently list it for sale at approximately $1.6 million dollars. Annexed hereto as Exhibit D is Business Metrics printout for December 2017 generated by Allstate. In the column toward the bottom of the spreadsheet entitled Earned Premium, the number from the row entitled Total Property & Casualty, is the my total earned premium of $5,143,276.00. This type of increase in value unprecedented in the business.
- 9. My agency has performed so well each month I began to be recognized as a top agent in the company. Annexed here as Exhibit E is a Top 25 list for items produced in a month. I was number on this particular month. In March of 2017 I was honored and recognized by Allstate for outstanding business performance as the top agent in the state for auto and homeowners insurance sales. Annexed hereto as Exhibit F is the article that was issued for that honor in which the New York Regional Sales leader praises my commitment and understanding of the business.
- 10. A main objective that Allstate reinforces to its exclusive agents is furthering the company brand and meeting business standards as often as possible. An Agency's value and credibility is heavily based the Agency retention of customers and the agency's loss ratio. The loss ratio of an agency is affected when an agency is writing bad policies. My Agency's performance in both retention of customers and loss ratio in 2017 has placed on the Nocella Agency on the Best in Company list. Annexed hereto as Exhibit G is the Best in Company Agency hist for 2017, in which my Agency, the Nocella Agency is number three. Being the Best in Company is prestigious and very beneficial to my business and future. Agencies that are Best in Company are ushered all over the country by Allstate, sent on all expenses paid vacations to the most desired destinations in the world and affords Agents the opportunity to meet, socialize and work with high ranking executives of the company. These opportunities are priceless for what they can do for business. I was very much looking forward to all these opportunities this year. If Allstate

11. There is no disputing the fact that the Nocella Agency is at the very top of the list of best Alistate Agencies in the company, and coveted by many. The book of business that the Nocella Agency has produced is so valuable and serviced so well, that if Allstate ever had this book back in its possession they could divide the accounts into four smaller books of business. The result would be the opportunity for the Regional, Territorial and Field Sales leaders to bring four new agents in to purchase these books. New agents results in bonuses for the Regional, Territorial and Field sales leaders and four more store fronts out in the public. Allstate desires to be everywhere. They want a store front every mile on Long Island.

Allstate's Breach of the Exclusive Agency Agreement

- 12. Although I was aware of the unethical tactics Allstate employed to manipulate a situation to benefit the company, my Agency was operating so efficiently I could not imagine a situation where my Agency, and employees would be targeted. Whether my termination is with intent or a grossly negligent overreaction to industry practice, the fallout is irreparable. On December 19, 2017, I was asked to attend a meeting close to my office. When I arrived at the meeting I was the only person there. A short time later a television came on and a woman I did not know at the time, but I now know to be Lucia Montano, appeared. She informed me she was an investigator out of the Allstate office located in Illinois, commonly known as home office.
- 13. At no time prior to this meeting or during this meeting, was I asked if I would like to consult counsel. While I understand I do not have an absolute right to counsel in this type of situation, I was taking by surprise at the magnitude of these allegations. The Territorial and Field Sales leaders that are supposed to be helping agents in their territory, knew that this meeting was serious. When I asked my Field Sales leader, Greg Damadeo, what this was about his words to me were, "that is bad." No guidance came from him or anyone. Ms. Montano knew what she was going to be asking me about. She knew the significant consequence of the interview. She made it very clear I could be terminated. I was never asked or given an opportunity to speak an attorney. Ms. Montano consistently tried to lead me into answers that I do not believe were construed properly. Ms. Montano kept asking if I knew the information I submitted was false. Agents throughout the company are not submitting false information to the company. Agents only objective is get an inspector to the property. Ms. Montano continued to use the phrase "knowingly submitted falsified documents". The implication that I submitted any information with the intent to fool a fool proof system is misguided. There is no way to trick the system. I was submitting information as I was taught to do.

14. I was shocked at the allegations that Ms. Montano began to levy upon me and my agency. I was not present with counsel and not entirely sure what Ms. Montano was investigating. This ambush lasted about an hour and Ms. Montano informed me that I was being investigated for submitting false documents to Allstate, and could be facing a termination. In my Exclusive Agent Agreement, Allstate reserves the right to terminate the agreement. Please see Exhibit C, page 8, Section XVII. I was completely taken off guard at these allegations and I could make any sense of what exactly I was being accused of doing. The same investigator subsequently called an employee of my agency, Christina Guigliano, to question her as well. We were being accused of submitting inaccurate information to the company on homeowner's insurance applications. I was questioned about one account and Ms. Guigliano was questioned about submission on three accounts, if she did submit any inaccurate information, it was not authorized by me, I had no knowledge that is what occurred, and I am confident she was following procedures she learned while taking her binding authority and quote optimization class.

15. I immediately turned to my Regional Leaders for guidance and assistance on how to clear this misunderstanding up. I was stonewalled and told that they do not know anything about what was going on and are kept separate from the investigation. After attempting many times to have the people who have direct interaction with me on a daily basis and the ability to explain to the home office, that my agency is run with integrity and upholds the Allstate reputation more so than any other agency, and being treated as if I was a stranger to them, I had no choice but to hire counsel. My attorney sent a letter asking for updates on the investigation and was not even responded to, let alone provided an update or answer. I did not hear anything from anyone at home office or anyone locally regarding the investigation taking place for approximately two months. The Regional Leaders only communication with was to tell me they would assist in finding a buyer if my agreement was terminated. In fact, one Allstate Field Sales Leader who has been privy to my business with Allstate since I first started, who has mentored me; and I would have expected to be helping me clear up an obvious mistake, was intimating regularly that if it came down to it he would purchase my book. It was at that point that I realized I could not depend on the local Allstate brass to defend me or otherwise influence the home office, as they were viewing this as an opportunity for financial gain from my loss. The clear conflict of interest that developed once one of my superiors was talking about buying my book left me isolated and alienated from the company. This breach of the responsibility to I was not quite sure who to turn to.

16. After the turn of the New Year I had not heard anything regarding the investigation but I was certain that had not done anything wrong that would warrant a termination of my agreement, so I continued on building my business. As February began, neither I nor my attorney had heard anything regarding the investigation. In fact, Allstate paid me my bonus on February 17, 2018. This was an indication to me that nothing had come out of the investigation, or likely I would have been notified prior to Allstate issuing my bonus.

Ankur Chaturvedi, a Territorial Sales Leader, at a local Starbucks. It was there I was given a notice that my Exclusive Agent Agreement with Allstate was being terminated. The Termination letter is annexed hereto as Exhibit H. I was also given a notice that I have until July 1, 2018, which is ninety (90) days to find a buyer for my business that would be approved by Allstate or Allstate will purchase the book but at a reduced priced, called the Termination Payment Provision (TPP). This provision is found in my Independent Contractor Exclusive Agent Manual. The manual is length for purpose of efficiency, annexed hereto as Exhibit I is the relevant portion of the Manual. The TPP value of any Allstate book is significantly less than what it is worth. Allstate has an interest in a seller not finding a buyer prior to the ninety days expiring, as they stand to get a discounted rate on that seller's book of business. This fact combined with their right to approve a buyer, sets up a concerning conflict of interest. Allstate can delay the sale and the owner of that book is helpless to do anything. As soon as I realized the possibility that I may be terminated I proactively began to plan for the worst case scenario that I may have to sell. I contacted my Territorial and Field Sales leaders on a daily basis asking them to assist me in searching for a buyer. The purchase would be in excess of a million dollars and I knew it would be difficult to find a buyer in ninety days. For nearly two months I was ignored whenever I requested assistance to procure a buyer. This conflict is front and center in regards to my book and the value that is being used to set the TPP amount. I will discuss the irreparable harm that I will suffer due to this in detail a little further into my affidavit.

- 18. Allstate has yet to issue me a written explanation of why they are terminating my agreement. I have verbally requested written explanation or any explanation and have been shut down at each attempt. My attorney has requested an explanation in writing, which has yet to be complied with. Annexed hereto as Exhibit J is the letter requesting a detailed explanation from attorney's office.
- 19. According to the termination letter I was issued, although it is not clearly stated in the body of the letter, the clause of the agreement that is cited means I was terminated for cause. See Exhibit H and Exhibit C, page 8, Section XVII. Allstate has violated my rights and breached our agreement by terminating me without a legitimate reason.
- 20. I would like to think that my termination is the result of negligent and incomplete investigation. I was only spoken to about this one time. Christina Guigliano was only interviewed one time. I was never request to provide any additional information or documentation. My calls and my attorney's calls were not answered or returned. I am confident that a complete and thorough investigation would yield on one result, that I have not breached my agreement. That what I am being accused of doing is a companywide practice, and Allstate is complicit. A complete investigation has not been done. There are investigations that have taken place for agents that have actually falsified documents. In two cases, two agents were submitting photo shopped declaration pages of a policy to Allstate. This is the definition of falsifying documents. These agents were reprimanded, questioned and ultimately not terminated. Multiple agents have been investigated for omitting information about the home, such as how many bathrooms the home has. This is deliberately submitting information to the company knowing it is false. The result was no termination for these agents.

- 21. Even more telling about the complicity of Allstate and the negligent investigation regarding my agency is the fact that the most important factor in obtaining either a home or auto policy from Allstate is the insurance credit score. The insurance credit score and the Catastrophe Risk Management ("CRM") score are the two scores used to evaluate homeowner's insurance application. I will discuss 'CRM" in more detail below. The insurance credit score is often times the determinant in a policy being eligible to write or not. There is actual documented reporting on how many times agents make what is called a duplicate credit order or "DCO". On the activity report for all licensed sales agents, duplicate credit ordering is monitored. It is known by agents that this practice is frowned upon by Allstate, but there is no zero tolerance policy. If an agent goes overo the threshold set by Allstate, it is not cause for termination. Without question Allstate knows this is the common practice. The amount of times an agent is ordering The Catastrophe Risk Management score is not documented anywhere. There would be no reason to believe that Allstate would terminate me over a few policies having inaccurate submissions for a CRM score, when Allstate knows the frequency of which agents are altering the credit score submission, which significantly changes premiums, rates and eligibility of policies. A CRM score has a safety net with a subsequent inspection of the property, which is discussed in detail beginning with ¶ 23. Allstate is on the record agreeing that the inspection is the final say all, also discussed in ¶ 23 below.
- 22. I certainly hope this is a mistake and will be rectified. Instead, it appears Allstate has manufactured an issue in a scheme to obtain my valuable agency at a significant reduction. The calculated nature of this plot is a gross ethical and legal violation. Allstate has wrongfully terminated my agreement and breached the agency agreement. Allstate has colluded to have my agreement terminated, knowing I would not be able to procure a buyer in ninety days leaving Allstate as the only viable buyer for my property. Allstate has violated my rights to freely transfer my property without their interference.

NYSCEF DOS: NO. 604642/2018

Immediate Irreparable Injury Will Result in the Absence of a Temporary Restraining Order Stopping the Defendant from Shutting Down the Nocella Agency

Background

23. My termination and the termination of Christina Guigliano is based on the unfounded allegation that we entered estimated, and not exact, numbers regarding four accounts that were procuring homeowners insurance for. Allstate began providing homeowners insurance directly, in or around 2012. Selected zip codes across Long Island would be released periodically and agents would be able to write homeowners insurance in those zip codes. Annexed hereto as Exhibit K is an email agents received on July 28, 2017, opening previously closed zip codes. An agent processing an application for homeowners is expected to enter the credentials of the home, which include, square footage (living area and finished living area), dog presence, deadbolt indicator, park status, smoke detector, home style, number of families, year built, construction type, number of stories, perimeter choice, shape, measured perimeter, main home wall height and percent and basement depth. Annexed hereto as Exhibit L is a printout of one of the accounts that was investigated by Allstate that lists the credentials to be inputted.

24. After inputting these numbers the system is set up to produce two scores. The Insurance Credit Score, discussed above, and Catastrophe Risk Management Score or the "CRM" score. Based on these scores the property is either accepted or rejected. If accepted, an inspector is notified to go to the property and issue his or her calculated upon actually being at the property. The policy is then underwritten if all is good. If the property is rejected the standard practice of every Alistate agent writing a homeowners policy is to change estimated credential that were either provided inaccurately by the homeowner or were not available on the internet. Allstate claims they require agents to submit accurate information. This is exactly what we have done to the best of our ability, when possible. When ascertaining the home credentials there are no possible way to get exact or completely accurate information. The reason an inspector is sent to the property after the agents submits numbers to make sure the numbers submitted that were provided by the customer or found online were accurate. In fact, Allstate's own investigator for my case, Lucia Montano, states directly that the inspector is final say all in this process. Annexed hereto as Exhibit M is page 35-36 of a certified transcript of the telephone interview Ms. Montano had with my employee Christina Guigliano. The conversation is regarding the inspection after inputting home credentials. On page 36, Line 12-13, the investigator states directly "I know that. We all know the inspection is the final say all."

25. Customers do not always know the square footage of their home. Customers are not always upfront about having a pet, or may not know the roof geometry or any of the required fields. Some of the information is available online. That information could be wrong or outdated. When the inspection is complete the inspector's numbers are always different than what is found on the internet. When Allstate releases zip codes they do not specify any exception in those areas, in terms home size or location, they simply say it is ok for homeowners to be issued in that zip code. With the exception of distance from the shore, there has never been any class offered, memo issued, email, letter, phone or any communication at all that expressly stated limitations of homes within a zip code.

26. What is particularly troubling about this entire situation is the fact that every employee at the Nocella Agency is required and encouraged to remain current on products offered in our business, and ways to improve servicing our clients. My employees are proactive in participating in classes, seminars and any other opportunity to advance their knowledge and skills in the field. In August of 2017, I was invited to a conference called the "Ivantage Road Show". Two new companies, National General and Cabrillo Coastal, who Allstate was now allowing us to write homeowners insurance through, were hosting the conference and giving seminars demonstrating how to run homeowners insurance quotes through their companies. I immediately contacted Jillian Skubis, who works for Allstate, and informed her I would be attending and asked that I be allowed to bring employees. Three of my employees, including Christina Guigliano, accompanied me to the seminar. I was the only Agency that brought staff with me. This is what the Nocella Agency strives to accomplish. Maximum knowledge of our products and learning whatever is offered that will assist us in servicing our customers.

Allstate's Failure

27. Allstate has never once issued any specific procedure or method in writing or otherwise on how agents are to input these credentials. Every agent practices the same procedure. When a zip code is available and a home comes back rejected, the input must updated to reflect a more accurate number so an inspector can get the property and get the right numbers. All state Regional and Territorial leaders are aware that this is the only method to procure customer homeowners. I have had personal discussion about it with them. It is no secret that this is the method used by all agents. As an agent I am empowered and expected to provide customer service to, solicit and write policies in furtherance of All state's brand. See Exhibit C, page 2, letter D. All state has failed to explicitly instruct any of its agents on how they want numbers inputted, while knowing the only method is sometimes amending numbers that could be inaccurate for a multitude of reasons, and financially benefitting from it.

28. I challenge Alistate to provide any information or tutorial or class or instruction or anything that explains what the CRM, how it is calculated, and how agents are supposed to input numbers. When a rejection comes back it does not state which credential does not qualify, it just says the issue is the CRM score. Through the company it is rare that numbers inputted come back with a reject. On the rare occasion that a reject does come back, every agent associated with Alistate knows to adjust the quote and get the inspection out to the property. Alistate has never instructed myself or any agent that we are only supposed to input numbers once and if it is rejected no longer try to service that customer's needs. I challenge Alistate to show me where in the Agency Standards Manual or EA Manual, or quote optimization class, that discusses the policy procedure on inputting the credentials for a home. If Alistate intended that to the procedure they would have made sure that agents were put on notice of it and implemented software or programming that would not allow any additional submission to obtain an inspection. The burden upon me as an agent is impossible to meet, when Alistate has a failed system and requires agents to write a certain number of policies.

Damages

29. My agency agreement has been terminated under the baseless allegation that I submitted false information to the company. Allstate alleges me and my employee, Christina Guigliano, submitted inaccurate information on four accounts when processing a homeowner's insurance application. All four accounts were in zip codes we were encouraged to write business in, Sayville and Patchogue. See Exhibit

K. One of the accounts was my own home, which I purchased a couple of months prior to Allstate opening my zip code for homeowners. During this period of time it is well documented by agents complaining and questioning Allstate as to why the zip code for Sayville is generating so many rejects, which is uncommon. I explained to Ms. Montano that in regards to my home, which is in Sayville, there were issues companywide with rejects on the Sayville zip code. I was inputting numbers to see what the cause of all the rejections were and how to fix what seemed to be technical problem. I called my Field Sales Leader, Greg Damadeo, and had a conversation with him as to why the Sayville zip codes were getting so many rejections. There is no intention to do anything that would be fraudulent towards Allstate. As mentioned there is no way to manipulate the numbers when an inspector goes to the property, and the correct policy is always issued. There was no potential gain for me personally. Still the submission for my own home and the three other accounts followed the exact procedure that was followed on every other account my agency wrote homeowners insurance for. Which is the the procedure that we were taught and is the only practice throughout Allstate to obtain homeowners insurance, and to get an inspection on the property. Each account, the inspection did what it is meant to do, the policy were issued properly, with sufficient coverage and Allstate suffered no harm whatsoever.

30. Since being terminated I have been forced to have another agency service my accounts, I have been shut down and locked out of the system. My employees are all displaced. Each passing day that Allstate has me locked the value of my hard work diminishes and accounts are being lost or damaged by not being serviced properly. The phone calls to my office are being forwarded, however the emails that come in are not being answered. I receive approximately eighty (80) emails per day from customers with questions regarding their insurance. Since March 1, approximately 960 emails from my customers seeking guidance from the Agency have been unanswered. The detriment to my good reputation, my employees' good reputation and the Agency's reputation and value cannot be calculated.

31. Allstate has issued a termination of appointments letter to me, dated March 8, 2018. Annexed hereto as Exhibit N. Allstate also notified the Department of Insurance of this termination. Annexed hereto as Exhibit O. The irreparable damage that reporting this illegal termination is immediate and will effectively end my career. This is another retaliation tactic by Allstate to implement fear in any individual who challenges them.

- 32. I have been told I will no longer receive commissions starting March 19, 2018. If Allstate is not stopped from illegally terminating me my only source of income will be gone. The commissions on business that I wrote over the past three and a half years that would be residually paying me for the next twenty years or more would be gone. The millions of dollars that I have invested in this business would be gone with no return.
- 33. If immediate action is not taken, Allstate will continue to damage me financially and damage my goodwill and reputation. If my Agency Agreement is terminated I will lose the financial benefits that would have vested this year from my agency being Best in Company. This includes bonuses, all-expense paid vacations and seminars with high ranking executives of the company, just to name a few. Please see Exhibit G.
- 34. If immediate action is not taken, and Allstate is not restrained pending the hearing of my motion for a preliminary injunction, Allstate will continue to damage me financially in what may be the most troubling manner. If Allstate continues with this termination, it will nearly impossible for me to find a qualified purchaser for what the value of my book is. Allstate has informed me that since I have only owned this book of business for three and half years all of the business written has not vested. That would have happened at five years. What that means is that Allstate is valuing my book of business based on the earned premium of the individual I purchased it from. That value is calculated currently at $98,325.74. Annexed hereto as Exhibit P is the Termination Payoff Payment Summary Report. On page 6, where it says grand total is what I will be paid if I am unable to find a purchaser. Currently the book is listed for sale at $1.6 million dollars.
- 35. There is no possible way to find a buyer because most purchaser are not flush with $1.6 million dollars, and since Allstate values what they would have to pay me for a termination fee at$98,325.74, any lending institution will lend only 100% of the TPP value. In my case a purchaser is only going to be able to finance $98,325.74 of a $1.6 million dollar purchase. When Allstate makes sure I do not get buyer they will have a $1,501,674.26 windfall. My family would have our hard earned money ripped away from them. It is difficult based on all that has occurred, not to formulate the opinion that Allstate sales leaders aware of this potential opportunity.

36. If the TPP value was what it is supposed to be based on the value I added to this book of business it would be $771,491.40. That is a difference in TPP value of $673,165.66. If all factors were considered equal and I simply could not find a buyer for my agency in 90 days, the least amount of money I should be paid for my asset would be $673,165.66. Incurring such significant, immediate and detrimental financial loss would be impossible to recover from.

37. If immediate action is not taken and Allstate is not restrained pending the hearing of my motion for a preliminary injunction, they will continue to damage me financially and damage my goodwill and reputation with my customers. They are illegally taking from me an asset that is estimated to be worth $8 million dollars in earned premiums in two years. That is an estimated sale value of $2.8 million dollars. The value will only increase over unless Allstate is allowed to keep me locked out of it and eventually take possession of it and use it to their gain. This investment in myself and my employees and my agency to grow my business as much as possible is all geared toward retirement for me and my family and a business I can pass down to my children.

Allstate's Failure to Mitigate

- 38. Whether the reasoning behind my wrongful termination is Allstate's arrogance and intention to essentially steal from me and my family and displace my employees; or this a grossly negligent overreaction because there is no policy on how to deal with this particular situation. Allstate's action should not be tolerated. Allstate has a history of treating its employees as disposable. Annexed hereto as Exhibit Q is an article of one of many incidents in which Allstate has proven to use lies and deception to gain an advantage on its employees so that a select few of the company could gain financially.
- 39. For two months I tried to talk to home office and my local sales leaders with silence in return. What is problematic is Allstate's unwillingness to accept their complacency in this method of inputting numbers and work to educate its Agents. Annexed hereto as Exhibit R, page 12 and 13 of the Exclusive Agency Manual. A the bottom under "Knowledge of Products and Services" is what I read as guideline for improving agents' knowledge on exactly what Allstate wants us to do when inputting numbers to obtain a CRM score. I would gladly attend meetings, educational classes, programs and anything else to have this clarified. Allstate prefers to wrongfully terminate my agency because of their lack of any direction or policy pertaining to this issue.

- 40. To the best of my knowledge, Allstate does not have any individual capable of explaining what the exact procedure is when inputting estimated numbers for a home and how CRM is calculated. Annexed hereto as Exhibit S are pictures of the search results on Allstate Gateway for CRM and how to figure square footage. Any method of calculating or otherwise figuring out the square footage of a home yield results that are not exact. Allstate's solution is to wrongfully terminate my agreement rather than address their problem caused by their incompetence and greed.
- 41. In fact Allstate has taken to retaliation because I will not sit back and allow them to take what I have built with hard work for no sufficient reason. My employee, Christina Guigliano, who was also investigated and interviewed by Ms. Montano, was recently sent a letter that her appointments were terminated with Allstate and that the Department of Insurance would be notified. See Exhibit T annexed here to. This letter is dated March 5, 2018 and she received it on March 6, 2018. Annexed hereto as Exhibit U is a letter dated March 2, 2018, in which Ms. Guigliano is informed she has received the prestigious honor of Committed to Excellence in 2017. The letter goes on to invite her to a recognition ceremony. My attorney notified Allstate of my representation on March 2, 2018. The subsequent termination of Ms. Guigliano is clearly an attempt to cause dissention in my Agency and to retaliate for asserting our contractual rights. The hypocritical nature of honoring a sales person's commitment to excellence one day and then the very next day terminating that person, is typical Allstate procedure of never being accountable for the company's shortcomings.
- 42. Ms. Guigliano was very clear to the investigator that she never underwent training on how to input information in the system. See Exhibit V, the certified transcript of Guiglinao, P. 25 lines 16-25 and P. 26 line 1-14. She is repeatedly tells Ms. Montano the she was taught the inspection is all that matters.

What is even more problematic about this conversation is illustrated on P. 40 lines 10-25 and P. 41, lines 1-19, annexed hereto as Exhibit W. Ms. Guigliano has been honest with Ms. Montano and Ms. Montano attempts to bully Ms. Guilgiano into making something up when the investigator says, "when someone's says to me I don't remember, it means I may have done it." This is abusive and inappropriate and Ms. Guigliano's integrity prevailed in spite of the investigators attempt to break it.

- 43. For the foregoing reasons, respectfully, the Court must grant my emergency application for a Temporary Restraining Order and the motion for injunctive relief requested herein to preserve the status quo as well as stopping Allstate from forcing the sale of my business, shutting my agency down from operating entirely, displacing all my employees and to prevent Allstate from causing any further irreparable economic harm to me and the Nocella Agency, while my motion for a preliminary injunction is pending hearing.
- 44. Plaintiff respectfully request a preliminary injunction be granted during the litigation of the underlying action. It is unlikely that such litigation is resolved in ninety days. With the preliminary injunction Allstate will attempt to force me to sell and thereby cause irreparable harm that is insurmountable.
 - 45. No prior request for the relief sought herein has been made to this or any other Court.

AFFIRMATION IN SUPPORT

Index No.:

ALLSTATE INSURANCE COMPANY, Defendant,

Anthony P. Dell'Universita, an attorney admitted to practice before the Courts of the State of New York, hereby affirms that:

I am the attorney for the Plaintiffs and as such, I am fully familiar with the facts and circumstances of this case.

I submit this affirmation in support of Plaintiff's application for the temporary and preliminary injunctive relief sought herein. For the reasons set forth below as well as in the accompanying affidavit of Michael Nocella ("Nocella Affidavit"), Plaintiffs' motion must be granted in its entirety, and Plaintiffs' request for a temporary restraining order is required to stop the irreparable harm defendant is causing the Plaintiffs from continuing.

COMPLIANCE WITH CPLR 202.7(f)

On Monday, March 12, 2018, notice was sent to Emily Renfro, the attorney for the defendant, Allstate Insurance Company, via letter that was faxed to the fax number on her letter head, via email to the email address she originally contacted me from, informing her that this application will be made on Wednesday, March 13, 2018, at 2:30p.m., at the Supreme Court for the State of New York, County of Suffolk, at the Special Term, Part. Please see Exhibit A annexed to my Emergency Affirmation, which is the notice, fax confirmation and the printed out email.

FACTUAL HISTORY

For a complete recitation of the factual history of this matter please see the Affidavit of Michael Nocella ("Nocella Affidavit"), dated March 6, 2018, and please see Exhibit A.

INJUNCTIVE RELIEF

It is well settled that the purpose of an injunction is to preserve the status quo during the pendency of the action and the power to grant such relief rests within the Court's sound discretion. Ruiz v Meloney, 26 AD3d 485 (2d Dept 2006); Pouncy v Dudley, 27 AD3d 633 (2d Dept 2006); First Franklin Square Associates, LLC v Franklin Square Property Account, 15 AD3d 529 (2d Dept 2005); Schweizer v. Town of Smithtown, 19 A.D. 3d 682, 798 N.Y.S.2d 99 (2nd Dept 2005).

In order to obtain injunctive relief, the movant must establish: (1) a likelihood of success on the merits; (2) irreparable injury absent the granting of the injunction; and (3) a balance of equities in the movant's favor. Nobu Next Door, LLC v. Fine Arts Hous., Inc., 4 N.Y. 3d 839 (2005); Ricca v Ouzounian, 51 AD3d 997, 998 [2d Dept 2008]. The existence of an issue of fact will not defeat a motion for injunctive relief which demonstrates the required elements. CPLR 6312(c). Oriburger, Inc. v B. W.H.N.V. Assocs., 305 AD2d 275, 278-279 (1st. Dept. 2003); Frank May Assocs. V. Boughton, 281 AD2d 673, 675 (3rd Dept. 2001).

Temporary Restraining Order and Irreparable Injury Absent the Injunction

To obtain a temporary restraining order, the movant must show that immediate and irreparable injury, loss, or damages will result unless the defendant is restrained before a hearing can be had. CPLR 6313(a).

The irreparable harm must be shown by the moving party to be imminent, not remote or speculative. Golden v Steam Heat, Inc., 216 AD2d 440 442 [2d Dept 1995]. See Village/Town of Mount Kisco v Rene Dubos Center for Human Environments, Inc., 12 AD3d 501 [2d Dept. 2004]; Neos v Lacey, 291 AD2d 434 [2d Dept. 2002].

The harm is irreparable when there is no adequate remedy at law available. See Poling Transp.

Corp. v. A & P Tanker Corp., 443 N.Y.S.2d 895, 897 (2d Dept. 1981). Chicago Research & Trading v.

N.Y. Futures Exch., Inc., 84 A.D.2d 413, 416, 446 N.Y.S.2d 280, 282 (1st Dep't 1982). A party will suffer irreparable harm in cases which money damages would be inadequate in the absence of injunctive relief. Salinger v. Colting, 607 F.3d 68 (2d 2010); Tutor Time Learning Ctrs. V. KOG Indus., 2012 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 162124 (E.D.N.Y. Nov. 13, 2012). Irreparable harm may be found in cases where damages are clearly difficult to assess and measure. Registe.com v. Verio, 126 F.Supp. 2d 28, 258 (S.D.N.Y. 2000).

Nocella will suffer irreparable from the illegal termination of his agency agreement resulting in loss of his business.

A complete loss of a business constitutes irreparable harm, (see e.g. Semmes Motors, Inc. v. Ford Motor Co., 429 F2d 1197 [2d Cir 1970]). The Court in Semmes held the termination of an auto dealership constitutes irreparable harm where the right to continue a business is not measurable entirely in monetary terms. The Court in Roso-Lino Beverage Distributors, Inc. v. Coca-Cola Bottling Co. of New York, Inc., 749 F2d 124 (2nd Cir 1884 held, where the injunction will prevent damage to the business as a whole, irreparable harm can be established. Also see, GPA Inc. v. Liggett Group Inc., 862 F Supp 1062, 1068 (SD NY 1994); Mr. Natural, Inc. v. Unadulterated Food Products, Inc., 152 AD2d 729 (2d Dept 1989)

A loss of the business need not be total, so long as it is so great as to seriously compromise the company's ability to continue in its current form. Norcom Elecs. Corp. v. CIM USA Inc., 104 F Supp 2d 198, 209 (SD NY 2000). The New York State courts held similarly in Staples, Inc. v. Moses, 2005 NY Slip Op 51376U (Sup Ct, New York County 2005, Acosta, J), holding, petition stood to lose its business given the time and difficulty in obtaining similar space in the neighborhood absent injunctive relief.

Determining whether loss of business constitutes irreparable harm requires an evaluation of the circumstances specific to each case. Voom HD Holding, LLC v. Echostar Satellite LLC, NY Slip Op 31278(U) April 23, 2008.

Irreparable harm to the plaintiffs is imminent should the defendant be permitted to proceed with the termination of Nocella's Exclusive Agency Agreement, resulting in forcing him to sell a business he has built from the ground up. If the Court denies this request the defendant will be able to continue to not allow Nocella to operate his business in any capacity. The result will be a total of his business that he has investing millions of his own money into. Allstate has shut off his company access, his access to his customers, his calls are forwarded to a servicing agency, his passwords don't work and his website is shut down.

Nocella has been notified that his final commission payment will be March 19, 2018. Losing commission checks will cause such irreparable harm to him, his family and employees. The immediate need to restrain Allstate from being able to withhold his income is evident.

As the matters stands right now, Nocella has to find a purchaser for his book by June 1, 2018, and a sale must occur by July 1, 2018. See Exhibit H. Each day that passes that the book is not being serviced properly the value decreases. An asset that Nocella has put millions of his own money back into is being destroyed for no good reason. As set forth in Nocella Affidavit, the inequity of sale price and the termination payout prices needs to be rectified immediately. The fact that the sales date is ninety days away, does not result in the immediate to stop the irreparable harm caused by the defendants to continue. Nocella, while in title, owns the business and sale proceeds if any, at this moment is not associated or able to monitor his business in any way. He has no control or ability the day to day operations of his business.

Undoubtedly, a loss of customer goodwill can constitute irreparable harm for preliminary injunction purposes. See Alside Div. of Associated Materials Inc v. Leclair, 295 AD2d 873, 874 (3rd Dept 2002), which held there is irreparable harm where plaintiff would lose business and suffer a dilution of goodwill after it cultivated relationships with its customers to develop repeat business. See also Four Times Squares Assocs., L.L.C v Cigna Invs., Inc., 306 AD 2d 4 (1st Dept 2003; Can West Global Communications Corp. v. Mirkaei Tikshoret Limited, d/b/a Mirkaei Tikshoreet Group, 9 Misc. 3d 845, 859-60 (Sup ct. New York County 2005).

FILED: SUFFOLK COUNTY CLERK 03/14/2018 02:13 PM INDEX NO. 604642/201 VYSCEF DOC: NO. 18-CV-01995-ADS-AYS DOCUMENT 1-2 Filed 04/03/18 Page 38 of 160 PageID #: 72/14/201

Nocella has cultivated such goodwill with his customers that is being completely destroyed due to the action taken by Allstate. Nocella has the best retention rate of customers in the company. That is based on his customer service and dedication to having his customers get the best insurance at the best rate possible. Nocella makes his commission based on renewals of the business he has written and new business written. If Allstate is not restrained this goodwill he has established will be diluted and his business will irreparably suffer.

Allstate has not forwarded any of the emails Nocella receives to his direct company email to a servicing agency. Approximately 80 customers per day directly email him with customer service questions. That is currently 1,040 emails that are not being answered or addressed. This is undoubtedly destroying his goodwill with his customers.

Allstate has notified the Department of Insurance about Nocella's termination for cause. See Exhibit N and Exhibit O. The immediate harm caused by that is the blemish on his license to produce insurance. He is subject to potential revocation, a fine and will have to always report an illegal termination should this motion not be granted.

Based on the above, Nocella has established irreparable harm, and the need for immediate restraint to keep everything status quo. After demonstrating the first prong to obtaining injunctive relief, Nocella can show the likelihood of success on the merits.

Likelihood of Success on the Merits

There is not a requirement of showing of a certainty of success on the merits, rather the "likelihood" of success on the merits. Doe v. Axelrod, 73 N.Y.2d 748, 750, 536 N.Y.S.2d 44, 532 N.E. 2d 1272; Bingham v. Struve, 591 N.Y.S. 2d 156, 158 (1st Dept. 1992). It is not for the court to determine finally the merits of an action upon a motion for preliminary injunction; rather, the purpose of the interlocutory relief is to preserve the status quo until a decision is reached on the merits. Hoppman v. Riverview Equities Corp., 16 A.D.2d 631; Weisner v. 791 Park Avenue Corp. 7 A.D. 2d 75, 78-79.

FILED: SUFFOLK COUNTY CLERK 03/14/2018 02:13 PM INDEX NO. 604642/201 UNSCEP DOS: NO. 189 CV-01995 ADS-AYS DOCUMENT 1-2 Filed 04/03/18 Page 39 of 160 PageID # .73/14/201

The plaintiff has demonstrated that there is a strong likelihood of success on the merits. All state has breached the Exclusive Agency Agreement by wrongfully terminating Nocella. The defendant has not disclosed or established the basis of the termination for cause. Simply stating he supplied false information to the company. Which is a baseless argument given there was no explicit instructions on how All state wanted its agents to submit any information.

Michael Nocella by agreement, is an agent and Allstate is the principal. See Exhibit C, P. 1, Section I, Subsection A. titled Authority. Nocella was given authority to sell, solicit, service and meet company objective of building a profitable business and obtaining market penetration. See Exhibit C, P. 2, Section II, Subsection A. and B. Nocella was operating under the companywide known objective and procedure when inputting information for an application for homeowner's insurance. (See Nocella Affidavit, P. 9, ¶¶ 21 and 22; P. 10, ¶27; P. 11 ¶28; P. 15 ¶39; and P. 16 ¶40) There were no explicit instructions, there were no classes offered, no emails issued, no memorandum issued on what agents are supposed to do. Including how many attempts agents should make to get an inspection to the property. The only edict followed by Allstate Agents, which Allstate endorses, was to get the inspection ordered id.

Nocella was acting within his actual and implied actual authority in the processing of these application. Evaluating an agent's authority should consider all circumstances surrounding the particular transaction. In particular is Allstates conduct. The company is aware of the practice undertaken by its agents when submitting information for a homeowner's insurance application. Allstate has not issued any directive on what they except agents to do, and the topic is not addressed a single time in any company issued manuals. Allstates's conduct proves they knew or should have known that never addressing this issue would indicate to an agent to do as every other agent does.

The Restatement of Agency Law 3d \S 8.15, addresses a principals duty to deal fairly and in good faith. Included is the principal's duty to provide the agent with information about risks of harm or pecuniary loss that the principal knows are present in the agents work but the agent does not know. The Restatement of Agency Law 3d \S 8.15. Allstate claims the practice they have endorsed throughout the company is now cause to terminate Nocella. Assuming arguendo, that Nocella was doing business in a manner that Allstate would have an issue with. Given the absence of any direct policy, Allstate knew Nocella would not have known this practice to be cause for termination, since Allstate would have to terminate every agent. Allstate should have either warned or educated Nocella, and all their agents.

The Restatement of Agency Law 2d § 35 and 3d § 2.02(1) address what the agent is expected to absent the explicit instruction of the principal. Agents have actual authority to conduct a transaction, which includes authority to do acts which are incidental to it, usually accompany it, or are reasonably necessary to accomplish it. The Restatement of Agency Law 2d § 35. These acts are authorized by the designated or implied manifestations of the principal's objectives. The Restatement of Agency Law 3d § 2.02(1).

Inputting information for homeowner's insurance is an incidental act, of which Nocella has authority and was acting in a manner consistent with Allstate's objectives. The fact that agents can input information as many times with the Allstate computer program stopping them, and the subsequent inspection yields the numbers the policy is ultimately based on, proves the objective is to just get the inspection ordered.

Nocella has upheld his duties and responsibilities as an agent. He has taken a book of business that when he purchased it had $1.2 million dollars in earned premium value, and in three and a half years the book now has a $5.5 million dollar earned premium value. Nocella has even taken steps to notify Allstate of the issue that was occurring when the Sayville zip codes were generating a lot of rejection. See Nocella Affidavit, P. 13, ¶ 29. Passing this type of information to his field sales leaders is exactly what an agent is supposed to do the situation described above.

In light of the above Allstate breached the agreement by wrongfully terminating Nocella as his actions did not establish a breach for cause and Nocella has a strong likelihood of success on the merits. The defendant also breached the implied contract of good faith and fair dealing. Nocella will no longer be able to collect commissions if terminated. This is directly effects his benefit from his customers renewing and Nocella getting his paid renewals. He will no longer be able to write new business and be paid commission on them.

Allstate was negligent from the inception of the investigation till its awkward conclusion.

Allstate interviewed Nocella and his employee just one time. Never asked for any additional information or documentation. Nocella was stonewalled by his local territorial and field sales leaders when requesting their guidance. There is no evidence that Allstate checked into the fact that this was not submitting false information, it is compliance with the practice recognized by the company. There is no evidence other agents were asked about this method, or whether the local territorial and field sales leaders were interviewed, to give insight into what they know to be the practice when inputting information.

Allstate is violated NY Ins. Law §3245(j)(D) by withholding commissions. Nocella has not committed any offense that is sufficient to terminate him for cause. Absent any other exception to the law, Allstate is violating Nocella's rights by withholding the commissions.

Based on the above Nocella has a strong likelihood of success on the merits of his case.

Balance of Equities in Movant's Favor

A balancing of the equities would favor Nocella since a preliminary injunction would preserve the status quo, as provided by the temporary restraining order, without any detrimental effect upon Allstate. See Gramercy Company v. Benenson, 223 A.D.2d 497, 498 (1st Dept 1996). Balancing of the equities generally requires the court to look to the relative prejudice to each party accruing from a grant or a denial of the requested relief.

Granting plaintiff a preliminary injunction and a temporary restraining order does not prejudice the defendant in any regard. Keeping status quo until a determination of the motion and underlying matter puts Allstate back in a better position as the Nocella Agency is documented top earning agency in the company. The detriment that will occur to Nocella and the Nocella Agency, should the application be denied is irreversible.

In balancing the equities, the court should consider various factors, including whether plaintiff has unclean hands. United for Peace & Justice v Bloomberg, 5 Misc. 3d 845, 849-850, NY Slip Op 24389 (Sup Ct NY Co 2004).

FILED: SUFFOLK COUNTY CLERK 03/14/2018 02:13 PM INDEX NO. 604642/201

Taking into consideration the incomplete investigation, the Field Sales Agent, Greg Damadeo's offer to purchase Nocella's agency and the stonewalling of Nocella at every turn when he was seeking guidance, the defendant does not have clean hands in this process.

There are documented accounts of agent's submitted doctored declaration and, agents omitting details they know are pertinent to a policy and Allstate has not terminated them. See Nocella Affidavit, P. 8, ¶ 20. Yet the witch-hunt against Nocella, his agency and his employee, Christian Guigliano seems to be calculated and underhanded.

In light of the above granting the temporary restraining order and preliminary injunction to maintain the status quo while the issue are determined is warranted.

CONCLUSION

Plaintiff has set forth sufficient evidence that establishes the immediacy and need for emergency relief to keep matters status quo. Demonstrating the likelihood of success on the merits, the existence of irreparable harm and that granting such relief would balance the equities in favor of the plaintiff, the court respectfully should grant the motion for a temporary restraining order and preliminary injunction in its entirety.

WHEREFORE, it is respectfully requested that the court grant the relief requested in this Order to Show Cause, together with such other relief as the court may deem just and proper.

RECEIVED NYSCEF: 03/10/2018

 Defendant, Allstate Insurance Company, is a corporation, incorporated under the laws of the State of Illinois, with a home office address of 2775 Sanders Road, A2E Northbrook, Illinois 60062.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

- 8. This proceeding is brought pursuant to CPLR § 3001 and CPLR Article 63.
- 9. Venue is proper in Suffolk County, New York State, pursuant to CPLR § 503 because it is where the plaintiff resides.

FACTS

Agency History

- 10. Michael Nocella began working as an Allstate Insurance Agent on May1, 2012, starting his business from what is called "scratch" or not having purchase an already existing book of accounts.
- 11. Upon information and belief, Nocella agreed to go "scratch" in lieu of purchasing a book of accounts because he was told by Field Sales Leaders of Allstate he would be able to incorporate the business he wrote while a scratch agent into any larger book of accounts he purchased.
- 12. Upon information and belief, Nocella was misled and was not able to incorporate the business he wrote as a scratch agent with the book purchased in 2014.
- 13. In August of 2015, Nocella purchased an Allstate book of business for $265,000.00, which had an earned premium value of $1.2 million dollars.
- 14. On September 1, 2014, Nocella signed and Allstate R3001S Exclusive Agency Agreement, and The Nocella Agency began operating business.

RECEIVED NYSCEF: 03/10/2018

- 15. Upon information and belief, Allstate did not lend or finance Nocella's purchase in any regard, nor do they hold a security interest in the book of accounts.
- 16. Upon information and belief the purchase of the accounts was from a private individual not Allstate.
- 17. Upon information and belief, Nocella was the owner and has an economic interest in the earned premiums and commission of his customers.
- 18. Upon information and belief Allstate owns any business produced or the account.
- 19. Upon information and belief Allstate, pursuant to the Exclusive Agreement, can require an agent who is terminated or voluntarily terminates their agreement, to sell their book of business to an Allstate approved buyer in ninety days. The seller would then retain full compensation for the sale.
- 20. Upon information and belief, failing to sell within ninety days would result in the election of a Termination Payment or TPP, at reduced price then the open market.
- 21. Upon information and belief, in three and half years, Nocella, who has invested approximately $3.5 million dollars into The Nocella Agency, has produced a significant amount of business that now has the value in earned premium at $5.5 million dollars; such a book would sell for $1.6 million dollars.
- 22. Upon information and belief in the past three and a half years, Nocella has been recognized personally as a top agent in the company, receiving top 25 producer honors, and awarded top producer for auto and home sales in 2017.
- 23. Upon information and belief, The Nocella Agency has grown to one the top agencies in the company, and finished 2017 with the best retention loss ratio, earning the Agency Best In Company.

Allstate's Investigation

- 24. On December 19, 2017, Nocella was informed by an Allstate Investigator that he was under investigation for allegedly submitting inaccurate documentation to the company when submitting information for a homeowner's insurance policy.
- 25. Upon information and belief, the investigation was pertaining to four accounts of The Nocella Agency, located in Sayville, New York and Patchogue, New York.
- 26. Upon information and belief, an employee of The Nocella Agency, Christina Guigliano, was also interviewed as part of the investigation.
- 27. Upon information and belief, after learning what the investigation was about, Nocella made multiple attempts to have the Territorial and Field Sales leaders assist him with the investigation with no response and no assistance whatsoever.
- 28. Upon information and belief Nocella continued to request assistance from the Allstate territorial and field sales leaders, asking them to help him find a purchaser in the event he was terminated and had to sell. He was never responded or offered any assistance.
- 29. Upon information and relief, Allstate field sales leader, Greg Damadeo, created a conflict of interest by intimating to Nocella that if he had to sell he would buy, leaving Nocella feeling alienated from the people he believed would be helping him through a difficult time to clear this issue up.
- 30. Upon information and belief, on or around February 17, 2018, Nocella received his bonus for 2017.
- 31. On March 1, 2018, Nocella was asked to meet Territorial Sales Leader, Ankur Chaturvedi, at a Starbucks, where Nocella was handed a termination notice stating he had ninety (90) days or till July 1, 2018, to find a purchaser for his business.

and told there was nothing more she can do.

32. Upon information and belief, Nocella immediately called Nancy Fuestel, from Human Resources as he the notice indicated she would assist with any question Ankur Chaturvedi also directed Nocella to call Nancy Feustel. Nocella was again stonewalled

- 33. Upon information and belief, Nancy Feustel is in possession of supporting documents for the termination decision and in spite of multiple requests by the plaintiff, she has not provided them.
- 34. Upon information and belief, plaintiffs were terminated for cause pursuant to the Exclusive Agency Agreement, Page 8, Section XVII (b)(3), for allegedly entering inaccurate information in the processing of a homeowner's insurance application.
- 35. Upon information and belief, Christina Guigliano received a termination letter terminated her appointments with Allstate on March 5, 2018, three days after counsel for Nocella notify Allstate of his legal representation.
- 36. Upon information and belief, Nocella and Guigliano, allegedly entered home credentials that were not exact, which generated a CRM score which initiated an inspection of the property.
- 37. Upon information and belief, CRM means Catastrophe Risk Management.
- 38. Upon information and belief, the information to be submitted to generate a CRM score is as follow: square footage (living area and finished living area), dog presence, deadbolt indicator, park status, smoke detector, home style, number of families, year built, construction type, number of stories, perimeter choice, shape, measured perimeter, main home wall height and percent and basement depth.

RECEIVED NYSCEF: 03/10/2018

39. Upon information and belief, Allstate has not provided any means for its agents to determine any of the above listed value that need to be inputted to an exact.

- 40. Upon information and belief, Allstate agents are expected to enter accurate information.
- 41. Upon information and belief, Agents ascertain the information by asking the customer, the internet or any other database available. The source of the information is not always correct, accurate or updated. The customer may not know or may not be telling the truth regarding some of the information.
- 42. Upon information and belief, Allstate agents, company wide, operate under the same objective, which is to get an inspector to the property since the inspection is the only method to get close to accurate numbers as possible. If the system says the original numbers inputted are rejected, Agents make some amendments to get the inspection scheduled. Taking human error into consideration it is unlikely that the inspection always yields one hundred percent accurate numbers.
- 43. Upon information and belief, Allstate managers, supervisor or leaders of the company are all aware of the method and objective of every agent of the company.
- 44. Upon information and belief, there is no exact formula available to any agent or the public that demonstrates how a CRM score is obtained, thereby leaving the agent to guess at what information would need to be amended.
- 45. Upon information and belief, there is no express or implied written statement or warning or policy or procedure that states an Allstate agent cannot enter the home credentials more than once for an application. The computer allows the agents to do so.
- 46. Upon information and belief, there is no express or implied statement or warning or policy or procedure, verbally, audibly or visually issued to any Allstate agent, including Nocella that agents are not supposed to enter information in the system more than once when ascertain a CRM score on a homeowner's application.

- 47. Upon information and belief, Allstate has not offered, required, suggested or made available to any Allstate agent, including Nocella, any educational classes, seminars, meeting, tutorials, focus groups, conferences or any other form of educational means, on the CRM process.
- 48. Upon information and belief, Allstate has not offered, required, suggested or made available to any Allstate agent, including Nocella, any educational classes, seminars, meeting, tutorials, focus groups, conferences or any other form of educational means, on the exact procedure Allstate wants its agents to follow when entering CRM score information.
- 49. Upon information and belief, there is no express or implied written statement or warning or policy or procedure that is clearly stated in any of the Allstate issued manuals, including but not limited to, the R3001S Exclusive Agency Agreement, the Supplement for the R3001 Agreement, the Exclusive Agency Independent Contractor Manual, the Agency Standards Manual or any Allstate issued manual to its agents, stating the number of times an agent shall submit information to obtain a CRM score, how a CRM score is actually calculated, the method or procedure Allstate expects agents to follow when gathering information to submit that would ensure it was exact.
- 50. Upon information and belief, Allstate acknowledges and recognizes that the inspection is the final and only determinant in the issuance of homeowner's insurance.

The Damages Suffered by Plaintiffs

- 51. Upon information and belief, The Nocella Agency's current earned premium value is $5,143,276.00.
- 52. Upon information and belief, Allstate calculated a potential termination payment or TPP based upon the previous owners earned premium and is not including any new business produced by Nocella and the Agency since he has not owned the book for 5 years or more.
- 53. Upon information and belief, that calculate TPP value is $98,325.74. That is the value Nocella would be compensated if unable to procure a buyer in 90 days.
- 54. Upon information and belief, if the TPP value was calculated including all of Nocella's new business, in which his agency alone added the value to the book, the amount would be $771,491.40 that is $673,165.60 difference.
- 55. Upon information and belief, Nocella can sell his book on the open market for $1.6 million dollars.
- 56. Upon information and belief, any purchaser would only be able to borrow from a lender 100 percent of the TPP value of $98,325.74 for a $1.6 million dollar purchase, rather $771,491.40 if the TPP value was calculated fairly. In ninety days it would be near impossible to find an Allstate approved buyer that has a cash flow available to buy this book.
- 57. Upon information and belief, Allstate stands to make a $1,501,674.26 windfall should they only be required to pay the $98,325.74 TPP value.

58. Upon information and belief, Nocella was informed he would no longer be receiving his commission checks starting March 19, 2018. He stands to lose millions of dollars of commission that renew and be paid residually for nearly twenty years.

- 59. Upon information and belief, when the Agency makes the Best in Company list, Nocella would be benefitted with bonuses, all-expense paid vacations to the highly coveted vacation destinations, endless business opportunities all over the country, social and business events with the owners and top executives of the company. Nocella is no longer in line for this due to his illegal termination.
- 60. Upon information and belief, Nocella has done all he can to mitigate and solve the company wide issue that he is being targeted for. Allstate has failed at any mitigation attempt and has retaliated and stonewalled the process.

AS AND FOR A FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION AGAINST ALLSTATE FOR A DECLARATORY JUDGMENT

- 61. Plaintiff repeats and re-alleges the allegations set forth in paragraphs 1-60 of the Complaint, as if fully set forth at length herein.
- 62. An actual and justiciable controversy exists between Plaintiffs and Defendant as to whether the termination of Nocella's Exclusive Agency Agreement was legal, appropriate and with cause.
- 63. Allstate is and was and at all times relevant to this action, aware of the practice and procedures its agents undertook to obtain an inspection when process a customer's homeowners insurance application.
- 64. Allstate was complicit in this company procedure.

AGREEMENT FOR PURCHASE OF AGENCY ASSETS

THIS ASSET PURCHASE AGREEMENT ("Agreement") is made this day of August, 2014 by and between JAMES J. HANLEY AGENCY, INC. hereinafter referred to as the "Seller", and MICHAEL P. NOCELLA, residing at 50 Park Avenue, Bayshore, New York 11706, hereinafter referred to as the "Buyer" or "Purchaser".

WHEREAS, Seller operates an Allstate Insurance agency at 3333 Veterans Memorial Highway, Suite E, Ronkonkoma, New York 11779; and

WHEREAS, JAMES J. HANLEY is the principal of the Seller; and WHEREAS, Seller desires to sell and Buyer desires to purchase all of Seller's right, title and economic interest and commissions on all renewals of his Allstate book of business; and

WHEREAS, the parties hereto each warrant and represent to the other that they, and each of them, fully understand all the terms, covenants, conditions, provisions and obligations incumbent upon each of them thereunder and each believes the same to be fair, just, reasonable and not unconscionable and to their respective individual best interest;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual promises, covenants, and agreements set forth hereinafter, the Seller does hereby agree to sell and the Buyer does hereby agree to purchase the agency assets hereinafter described on the terms and conditions set forth as follows:

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

- 1. RECITALS. The foregoing recitals are hereby made a part of this Agreement.
- 2. PURCHASE AND SALE. On the Closing Date, Seller shall sell, assign, transfer, convey and deliver to Buyer, and Buyer shall purchase and accept, all of the Seller's right, title and interest in the assets which are used in connection with the conduct of the operations of its insurance business ("Assets") including, but not limited to:
 - a) All customer or policy information, files, lists and records.
 - b) Any and all other economic interest in the insurance contracts or policies in which the Seller is listed as the Agent of Record or Exclusive Agency, including without limitation the "Economic or Equity Interest" as defined therein.
 - c) All Allstate Brokered policies.
 - d) The agency telephone numbers, fax numbers and all other Agency contact information except e-mail accounts and internet addresses which will be terminated by Allstate upon closing and all assets set forth on Schedule A attached hereto, all free and clear and in "as is" condition. The term "assets" does not include cash, accounts receivable, commissions earned on new sales prior to closing but due and not paid, lease deposits, security deposits and any personal items of the Seller or Agency staff.

- 3. PURCHASE PRICE. The purchase price to be paid by the Buyer to the Seller for the Assets to be sold hereunder shall be TWO HUNDRED SIXTY-FIVE THOUSAND and NO/100 ($265,000.00) DOLLARS payable as follows:
 - a) $165,000.00 of the purchase price shall be financed by Purchaser via Allstate commission assignment program for a period of five (5) years under the following terms:
 - 1) sixty (60) equal monthly payments, each in the amount of $3,038.73, which includes interest at the rate of four (4%) percent, on the thirteenth business day of each month, commencing October 17, 2014.
 - b) $100,000.00 to be paid to Seller at closing by BANK OR CERTIFIED CHECK ONLY.
 - c) If Buyer, MICHAEL P. NOCELLA, should assign this contract to a corporation, partnership, etc., he shall remain personally liable for payment of any and all of the aforesaid payments.
 - d) Seller shall execute at closing an assignment of his Allstate termination payments which shall be held in escrow by Seller's attorney and delivered to Buyer upon payment in full of the purchase price according to the terms of this contract. In the event that Buyer fails to make payment in full of the purchase price in accordance with the terms of this contract in a timely manner and upon Buyer's failure to cure any such default within ten (10) days of written notice of such default, the escrow agent shall deliver the assignment of Allstate termination payments to Seller. In the event such termination payment is not sufficient to pay any outstanding sums due, then Purchaser shall remain liable for the balance of payment in full under the terms of this contract.

- e) In the event Purchaser sells or transfers the assets being purchased herein, at Seller's option all sums due under Section 3(a)(1)shall become immediately due and payable.
- 4. APPLICATION FOR ALLSTATE APPROVAL. Buyer warrants having received preliminary approval from Allstate and agrees to execute all agreements, certifications and documents required by Allstate to permit the transfer of the Assets to the Buyer.
- 5. NOTIFICATION OF AGENCY TRANSFER. Seller hereby warrants having notified Allstate of the pending transfer of Agency Assets to Buyer and to execute all agreements and documents required by Allstate, and agrees to pay all fees and costs associated with such transfer imposed by Allstate.
- 6. CLOSING. The closing of the transfer of the Agency Assets and all related transactions included in the Agreement shall take place on or about SEPTEMBER 1, 2014. Allstate requires that the closing take place on the first of the month.
 - 7. EXPENSES. Except as otherwise provided herein, each party shall pay its own expenses incident to this Agreement and transactions, including, without limitation, all legal and accounting fees and distributions, except that the Buyer shall be responsible for any fees associated with Allstate's Commission Payment Agreement which are customarily paid for by the Buyer.

- 8. CONDITIONS PRECEDENT TO BUYERS OBLIGATION TO CLOSE.

 Buyer's obligation to close on the purchase of the Assets and to perform Buyer's obligations under this Agreement are conditioned upon the following occurrences:
 - a) Buyer obtaining approval from Allstate to own and operate this Agency and completing all certification requirements; and
- 9. REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES OF THE SELLER.

 Seller hereby makes the following representations and warranties:
 - a) Seller has no liabilities or obligations of any nature, whether accrued, absolute, contingent or otherwise with respect to Assets, except for liabilities and obligations incurred in the ordinary and usual course of business which Seller agrees to pay all sums due to the date of the closing.
 - b) The Seller is the sole owner of and has good and marketable title to the Assets, free and clear of any and all liens, claims, security interests, mortgages, pledges, encumbrances and charges of any nature whatsoever. Seller warrants that it has full authority to execute this Agreement and to complete the transfer of Assets as stated herein.

- c) Seller has operated its business in all material respects in accordance with all laws, regulations and ordinances.
- d) There is no action, suit, proceeding or investigation ending, or to the best of knowledge, information and belief of Seller, threatened against Seller, at law or in equity, whether judicial, administrative or otherwise. Seller is not subject to any judgment, order or decree. The Seller does not know, nor does it have any reasonable grounds to know, of any basis for any action, suit, proceeding or investigation against the Agency.
- e) Seller agrees to hold Buyer harmless of any and all demands, claims, actions or causes of actions, assessments, reassessment, losses damages and attorney's fees to defend same, by reason of any and all claims or liabilities arising on any of the said accounts stemming from any event whatsoever arising prior to the closing date.
- f) Seller covenants that he knows of no claim or liabilities on any of the said accounts being sold and assigned under this contract.
 - g) Seller, until the closing, shall:
 - (i) conduct the business in the normal, useful and regular manner;

- (ii) use its best efforts to preserve the business and the good will of the customers and suppliers of the business and others having relations with Seller.
- h) Unless and until the Closing shall take place, Purchaser shall hold in confidence all information obtained in connection with the Agreement and, if for any reason the Closing shall not take place, Purchaser shall return to Seller all documents received hereunder and shall keep confidential any information, customer lists, etc.
 pertaining to the business which was made available to Purchaser pursuant to this Agreement.
- 10. BUYER'S REPRESENTATIONS. Buyer represents that he has had ample opportunity to fully examine the books and records of the Seller and is satisfied with the content and value thereof. Buyer understands the business risks with Seller's book of business and acknowledges that Seller has made no representations whatsoever regarding the value, content or duration of Seller's economic interest in his book of business which is the subject of this sale.
- 11. GOVERNING LAW. This Agreement shall be constructed and governed by the laws of the State of New York. In the event that an arbitration action, lawsuit, administrative proceeding or litigation is brought with respect to this Agreement, the prevailing party shall be entitled to be reimbursed for, and/or have judgment entered with respect to, all of its costs and expenses, including reasonable attorney's fees, costs and $\cdot \cdot$ expenses. In the event of any claim, action or proceeding against Buyer or any of its officers, shareholders, directors and employees for which Seller is or may be liable pursuant to the indemnification and hold harmless provisions hereof, Buyer shall, within ten (10) days of notice, notify Seller of such claim and if within five (5) days thereafter, Seller has failed to retain counsel to defend the claim, then in the event counsel is not provided by Allstate, the Buyer shall be authorized to engage counsel of its choosing, at the cost and expense of the Seller, and the Buyer and its counsel, in consultation with the Seller, shall be free to assert any defense, cross claim, counterclaim and to resist or settle the claim, as the Buyer, in its sole and exclusive discretion, deems advisable provided, however, that the defense provided must be by counsel experienced in defending claims of this nature and that settlement must be made on consultation with Seller and must be reasonable and prudent under the circumstances.

Seller shall maintain E & O insurance for a period of one year after Closing and for up to three (3) years post closing if he becomes aware of any claims in the one year period post-closing.

12. AMENDMENTS. This Agreement may not be modified, revised, altered, added to or extended in any manner, or superseded other than by an instrument in writing signed by all parties hereto. No waiver of any provision hereto shall be effective unless agreed to in writing by all parties, and any modification or waiver shall only be effective for the specific instance and for the specific purpose for which given.

13. MISCELLANEOUS.

- a) For the convenience of the parties, this Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original, but all of which together shall constitute one and the same instrument.
- b) All notices which are required or may be given pursuant to the terms of this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be sufficient in all respects if personally delivered or if sent by certified mail, postage prepaid, return receipt requested and addressed as follows: [i] if to the Seller, to JAMES J. HANLEY at 11 Half Hollow Road, Holbrook, New York 11741 AND to James T. DellUniversita, Esq., Raiser & Kenniff, P.C., 300 Old Country Road, Suite 351, Mineola, New York 11501 unless notice of change of address is furnished to the other parties in the manner provided in this paragraph. All notices which are required or may be given pursuant to the terms of this Agreement shall be deemed to have been given on the date of personal delivery or, if mailed in accordance with this paragraph, three (3) days after the date of deposit in the mail.

- c) This Agreement shall inure to the benefit of and be binding upon the parties hereto and their respective personal and legal representatives, successors and assigns.
- d) The invalidity or enforceability of a particular provision of this Agreement shall not affect the remaining provisions hereof, and the Agreement shall be construed in all respects as if such invalid or unenforceable provisions were omitted.
- e) The headings contained herein are for convenience of reference only and are and shall be without substantive meaning or content of any kind whatsoever. The use of any gender herein shall be deemed to be or include the other gender and the use of singular herein shall be deemed to be or include the plural and vice versa, whenever appropriate.
- f) The parties shall execute such documents and take such actions as may be necessary or appropriate to carry out the purposes of this Agreement.
- g) In the event of a default hereunder, each party shall have all the remedies available under this Agreement and the laws of the State of New York.
 - h) All representations and warranties made herein shall survive the closing for three (3) years.

- i) All exhibits and schedules referred to in this Agreement are made a part hereof.
- j) Buyer agrees that commissions earned by Seller prior to closing but not paid to Seller prior to closing shall be paid to Seller within five (5) days of Buyer's receipt of said commissions.
- the Closing date, without further consideration the Seller will, at its own expense, execute and deliver such documents to Buyer as may be reasonably required in connection with the sale covered by this Agreement. On, and from time to time after the Closing date, without further consideration, Purchaser will, at its own expense, execute and deliver such documents to Seller as may be reasonably required in connection with the sale covered by this Agreement.
- 15. TAXES. Each party shall be solely responsible for the payment of all federal, state or local taxes imposed by law upon such party as a result of the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby. The parties shall cooperate in providing any documents or affidavits necessary for any filings.
- 16. BROKERAGE. The parties hereto represent and warrant to each other that they have not dealt with any broker or finder in connection with this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby, and no broker or any other person is entitled to receive any brokerage commission, finder's fee or similar compensation in connection with this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby. Each party agrees to indemnify and hold each other harmless from and against any claims, damage, liability or expense including attorney's fees, pertaining to any broker, finder or other person with whom such party has dealt. This provision shall survive closing.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have executed this Asset Purchase Agreement on this written date.

ALLSTATE R3001S EXCLUSIVE AGENCY AGREEMENT

The Company and you agree as follows:

I. AUTHORITY:

- B. This Agreement is the sole and entire agency agreement between the Company and you, and it supersedes and replaces any prior employment, agency, or other agreement between the Company and you. This Agreement also supersedes any prior oral statements and representations by the Company to you and any prior written statements and representations by the Company to you in letters, manuals, booklets, memoranda, or any other format.
- C. The Supplement for the R3001 Agreement ("Supplement") and the Exclusive Agency Independent Contractor Manual ("EA Manual"), and the Allstate Agency Standards ("Agency Standards") as they may be amended from time to time, are expressly incorporated in their entirety as part of this Agreement. The Company reserves the right to amend the Supplement, EA Manual, and Agency Standards at any time without prior notice to you, except that notice regarding changes to commission amounts will be given as indicated in Section XV.
- D. You are an independent contractor for all purposes and not an employee of the Company. You will have full control of your time and the right to exercise independent judgment as to the time, place, and manner of performing your duties, which are defined in this Agreement and the incorporated Supplement, EA Manual, and Agency Standards. You will not represent that you have authority to act on behalf of the Company or enter into any contract on behalf of the Company, except for contracts of insurance or other contracts as expressly authorized by this Agreement.
- E. You will not, either directly or indirectly, solicit, sell, or service insurance of any kind for any other company, agent, or broker, or refer a prospect to another company, agent, or broker, without the prior written approval of the Company. You may, however, write applications for insurance under an assigned risk, cooperative industry, or government established residual market plan or facility in accordance with the Company's rules and procedures.

- F. The Company will determine in its sole discretion all matters relating to its business and the operation of the Company including, but not limited to, the following:
 - The determination of contract forms and provisions, premiums, fees, and charges for insurance and other Company Business;
 - The acceptance or rejection of any application;
 - 3. The termination or modification of any contract or the refusal to renew any contract;
 - 4. The limitation, restriction, or discontinuance of the writing or selling of any policies, coverages, lines, or kinds of insurance or other Company Business;
 - The obtaining of any licenses of the Company or the Company's withdrawal from any state, jurisdiction, or territory; and
 - 6. The type and quality of customer service received by Company policyholders.

II. DUTIES AND CONDITIONS:

- A. You will act as an agent of the Company for the purpose of soliciting, selling, and servicing insurance and other Company Business in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement. As an agent of the Company, you will provide customer service, including the collection of payments, for any and all Company policyholders and you will assist in claims administration in accordance with the Company's rules and procedures.
- B. You will meet certain business objectives established by the Company in the areas of profitability, growth, retention, customer satisfaction and customer service. You will build and maintain a profitable book of business, assist the Company in its efforts to achieve market penetration for all forms of insurance offered by the Company and other Company Business, and service the Company's customers in a manner consistent with the Company's goodwill, reputation, and overall business strategy.
- C. You will record, transmit, and process insurance and Company Business in the manner prescribed in the then current provisions of the Supplement.
- D. You agree to maintain any required agent license in the state or states in which you are appointed to represent the Company and to comply with any and all applicable federal, state, or local laws, rules, regulations and ordinances affecting your operation.
- E. The Company recognizes that you may, in your sole discretion, arrange to have business conducted at your sales location in your absence by your own employees or other persons and that the time during which you are physically present at your sales location is entirely in your sole discretion. You must, however, remain actively involved in the conduct of business at your sales location.
- F. You agree that the Company will have the authority to use your name and signature, or facsimile thereof, on policy documents and customer communication materials.
- G. You agree to maintain a professional business relationship with the Company, and, when requested, to meet with Company representatives at mutually convenient times to discuss various business topics. You also agree that, because you are conducting business with the public under the Allstate name, Company representatives shall be permitted access to your agency to review compliance with this Agreement during agency business hours.

H. You agree that, as requested by the Company, you will demonstrate your knowledge of the Companyl products you are authorized to sell, as well as of federal, state, or local laws, rules, regulations and ordinances affecting your operation. If you are unable to demonstrate your knowledge of any product, the Company reserves the right to deny you the authority, or withdraw your existing authority, to sell that product until you demonstrate such knowledge

III. YOUR EMPLOYEES:

- A. You have no authority to employ persons on behalf of the Company, and no employee of yours will be deemed to be an employee or agent of the Company, such employees at all times remaining your employees. You have sole and exclusive control over your labor and employee relations policies and your policies relating to wages, hours, and working conditions of your employees. You have the sole and exclusive right to hire, transfer, suspend, lay off, recall, promote, assign, discipline, and discharge your employees.
- B. You are solely responsible for all salaries and other compensation of all your employees and will make all necessary salary deductions and withholdings from your employees' salaries and other compensation. You are solely responsible for the payment of any and all contributions, taxes, and assessments, and all other requirements of the federal Social Security, federal and state unemployment compensation, and federal, state, and local withholding of income tax laws on all salary and other compensation of your employees.
- C. You will comply with all other contracts, federal, state or local laws, ordinances, rules, or regulations regarding your employees, including federal or state laws or regulations regarding minimum compensation, overtime, and equal opportunities for employment. This includes, but is not limited to, your warranty and agreement to comply with the terms of the federal and state civil rights acts, Age Discrimination in Employment Act, Americans With Disabilities Act, Occupational Safety and Health Act, Immigration Reform and Control Act, and the Fair Labor Standards Act.
- D. You agree and warrant that your employees, while working in connection with this Agreement, will comply with any and all applicable federal, state, or local laws, rules, regulations, and ordinances.

IV. COMPANY PROPERTY, CONFIDENTIALITY:

- A. The Company will furnish you such signs, forms, manuals, records, and other materials and supplies as the Company deems advisable to assist you. All such property and information furnished by the Company will remain the property of the Company. In addition, the Company will offer, at your expense, such additional materials and supplies as the Company feels may be helpful to you.
- B. You agree that you will not at any time or in any manner, directly or indirectly, disclose to any third party or permit any third party to access any confidential information or any information containing trade secrets concerning any matters affecting or relating to the pursuits of the Company, except upon direct written authority of the Company. Furthermore, upon termination of this Agreement, you agree to treat as confidential and not to disclose, either directly or indirectly, to any third party any confidential information or trade secrets of the Company.
- C. You agree that you will not disclose or grant access to any confidential information or trade secrets to any of your employees or other persons providing services for you in connection with this Agreement, unless such employee or other person has signed a copy of the Confidentiality and Non-Competition Agreement attached as Appendix A. Appendix A is a sample copy of the electronic version of the document that must be transmitted to the Company.

- D. Confidential information includes, but is not limited to: business plans of the Company; information regarding the names, addresses, and ages of policyholders of the Company; types of policies; amounts of insurance; premium amounts; the description and location of insured property; the expiration or renewal dates of policies; policyholder listings and any policyholder information subject to any privacy law; claim information; certain information and material identified by the Company as confidential or information considered a trade secret as provided herein or by law; and any information concerning any matters affecting or relating to the pursuits of the Company that is not otherwise lawfully available to the public. All such confidential information is wholly owned by the Company. Such confidential information may be used by you only for the purposes of carrying out the provisions of this Agreement.
 - E. Any confidential information or trade secrets recorded on paper, electronic data file, or any other medium, whether provided by the Company or by you, is the exclusive property of the Company, as is any such medium and any copy of such medium.
 - F. You recognize that a breach of the foregoing provisions will cause irreparable damage to the Company's business and that such damage is difficult or impossible to measure. You agree that in the event of such breach, the Company, in addition to such other rights and remedies it may have, will be immediately entitled to an order granting injunctive relief from any court of competent jurisdiction against any act which would violate any such provision, without the necessity of posting a bond, and you waive any defense to an application for such order, except that the violation did not occur. You agree that the Company will be entitled to an award of reasonable attorneys' fees in the event that it is successful in an application for injunctive relief or in an action based upon breach of the foregoing provisions.

SALES LOCATION: V.

- A. You may select your sales location, within a geographical area specified by the Company, subject to a Company approval. Initially, you have selected the location at 150 Vet 5 Men and such sales location has been approved by the Company. You agree that you will not establish any 1/7/6 additional sales location without the prior written approval of the Company. You understand that you have no exclusive territorial rights in connection with your sales location.
- B. You agree to keep your sales location open for business as appropriate in the market to provide a proper level of customer service. As a minimum, you agree to operate your sales location consistently with the Agency Standards.
- C. You are authorized to sell insurance offered by the Company and Company Business only in the state containing your sales location and other states in which you are properly licensed and appointed as an agent by the Company.

ADVERTISING:

- A. The Company will advertise its products and provide promotional material in accordance with its advertising policies. You may also advertise in your sole discretion, subject to the requirements in paragraph B. below.
- B. You will submit all signs and advertising copy, including, but not limited to, sales brochures, display advertisements in telephone directories, newspaper advertisements, radio and television commercials, electronic media displays, all sales promotional plans and devices, and all other materials to the Company for approval, if they use or contain any reference to any service mark or trade name of the Company. You will not use any such advertising material or sales promotional plan or device without obtaining prior written approval from the Company. The Company has the right to disapprove any or all of the aforesaid advertising forms and other materials insofar as they, in the exclusive judgment of the Company, do not conform to Company policy regarding use of Company service marks or trade names; may subject the Company to liability or loss of goodwill; may damage the reputation of the Company or Company customer relations; may fail to adhere to the requirements of any federal, state, or local governmental rules, regulations, or laws; may fail to conform to community or Company standards of good taste and honest dealing; or máy be detrimental to the business interests of the Company.

VII. SERVICE MARK AND TRADE NAME PROTECTION:

- A. You agree to cooperate fully in the quality control program conducted by the Company relating to the use of its service marks and trade names and the nature and quality of services rendered and goods distributed under its service marks and trade names. The Company will have the right to specify, delineate, or limit the services or goods in connection with which you may use any of its service marks or trade names. In the event that the nature or the quality of the services or goods in connection with which you use any of the service marks or trade names of the Company is not acceptable to the Company, then the Company will have the right to require you to institute appropriate procedures to correct any deficiencies noted by the Company.
- B. You agree, at the request and expense of the Company, to assist the Company in protecting and enforcing the rights of the Company in and to any and all of its service marks and trade names which you may then be using.
- C. You will not in any manner encumber, alienate, license, or transfer to any other entity any right whatsoever concerning the service marks or trade names the Company authorizes you to use in the performance of this Agreement, except as permitted in Section XVI.
- You recognize that a breach of the foregoing provisions will cause irreparable damage to the Company's business and that such damage is difficult or impossible to measure. You agree that in the event of such breach, the Company, in addition to such other rights and remedies it may have, will be immediately entitled to an order granting injunctive relief from any court of competent jurisdiction against any act which would violate any such provision, without the necessity of posting a bond, and you waive any defense to an application for such order, except that the violation did not occur. You agree that the Company will be entitled to an award of reasonable attorneys' fees in the event that it is successful in an application for injunctive relief or in an action based upon breach of the foregoing provisions.

VIII. EXPENSES:

You will be responsible for the payment of all expenses that you incur in the performance of this Agreement including, but not limited to: expenses for your sales location, supplies not furnished by the Company, compensation of your employees or other assisting persons whom you engage, telephone, postage, and advertising expenses incurred at your direction, and all other charges and expenses.

IX. TELEPHONE:

All telephone numbers used in connection with business conducted pursuant to this Agreement are the property of the Company.

X. INDEMNIFICATION:

A. The Company will defend and indemnify you against liability, including the cost of defense and settlements, imposed on you by law for damages sustained by policyholders and caused by acts or omissions of the Company, provided that you have not caused or contributed to cause such liability by your acts or omissions. You agree, as a condition to such indemnification, to notify the Company promptly of any claim or suit against you and to allow the Company to make such investigation, settlement, or defense as the Company deems prudent. The Company reserves the right to select counsel to represent you in connection with any such claim or suit. You also agree to cooperate fully with the Company in any such investigation, settlement, or defense.

INDEX NO. 604642/2018 and the second second second second

> B. You will indemnify the Company against liability, including the cost of defense and settlements, imposed on the Company by law for damages sustained by any person and caused by your acts or omission, or those of any employee or other person working in connection with this Agreement, provided that the Company has not caused or contributed to cause such liability by its acts or omissions. The Company agrees, as a condition to such indemnification, to notify you promptly of any such claim or suit against the Company. The Company reserves the right to select counsel to represent it in connection with any such claim or suit and to make such investigation or settlement as the Company deems prudent.

INSURANCE: XI.

- A. You agree that you will, at your sole expense, obtain and maintain during the term of this Agreement policies of insurance as described in the EA Manual, as may be amended from time to time. Such policies must be obtained from companies satisfactory to the Company and must be adequate to protect against all expenses, claims, actions, liabilities, and losses related to the subjects covered by the required policies.
- B. Where specified, each policy must name the Company as an additional insured and must contain a severability of interest/cross liability endorsement. Each policy must also expressly provide that it will not be subject to material change or cancellation without at least thirty (30) days prior written notice to the Company.
- C. You must furnish the Company with proof of insurance upon request by the Company. If, in the Company's opinion, such policies do not afford adequate protection for the Company, the Company will so advise you, and if you do not furnish evidence of acceptable coverage within fifteen (15) days after being requested to do so by the Company, the Company will have the right to obtain additional insurance at your expense and deduct the cost of such insurance plus a processing fee from monies owed you by the Company.

FINANCIAL INFORMATION: XII.

You shall maintain all books and records relating to the business under this Agreement including, but not limited to, all checkbooks, check registers, deposit receipts, and general ledgers for a period of not less than five years after the close of the fiscal year to which they relate. All of the foregoing records shall be open and available for inspection or audit at any time during normal agency hours without notice by the Company or its designated auditors and you shall have the duty to cooperate fully with the party(ies) making such inspection or audit.

POLICIES IN YOUR ACCOUNT: XIII.

Policies which are credited to your account are described in the Supplement. While this Agreement is in effect, the Company will leave in your account all policies credited to your account so long as the policyholder resides within a state in which you are licensed and appointed by the Company, except that the Company may remove any policy from your account at the request of a policyholder.

MONEY COLLECTED BY YOU: XIV.

All payments collected or received by you in the performance of this Agreement are the property of the Company, will be treated as trust funds, and will be promptly transmitted to the Company without deduction for any purpose in the manner specified by the Company. You must maintain accurate records and current remittance reports which may be inspected by the Company at any time without notice and which shall be submitted to the Company in accordance with its rules and procedures.

XV. COMPENSATION:

- A. The sole compensation to which you will be entitled for services rendered pursuant to this Agreement will be the commissions set forth in the Supplement, as may be amended from time to time. The Company will pay you your commissions at the time and in the manner set forth in the Supplement. However, due to the inherent uncertainty of business conditions, the Company reserves the right to increase or decrease any commission amounts and to change the commission rules. If the Company changes commission amounts, it will provide you with written notice of the changes at least ninety (90) days prior to the date on which they are to become effective.
- B. The Company may provide you with such bonuses, awards, prizes, and other remuneration based on performance, if any, as it may prescribe in its sole discretion.
- C. If any application for insurance is rejected, or any policy is surrendered or canceled, in whole or in part, for any reason, before the expiration of the policy period, or if any premium is reduced or any overpayment made to you, or if any premium paid is not earned by the Company, the commissions paid to you on the amount returned or credited to the policyholder, or the amount overpaid to you, will paid to you or indebtedness of yours to the Company and will be charged to you or recovered from you by reducing any future commissions, awards, or bonuses due you.

XVI. TRANSFER OF INTEREST:

- A. This Agreement is personal to you and is being entered into in reliance upon and in consideration of your skills, qualifications, and representations. Accordingly, you may not execute a transfer of your interest in this Agreement or any interest in the business under this Agreement including, but not limited to, any sale, assignment, conveyance or the granting of any lien, security interest, pledge, or mortgage thereof, without the prior written approval of the Company. A transfer of interest in this Agreement is described in the Supplement and EA Manual and includes, but is not limited to, any Agreement is described in the Supplement and EA Manual and includes, but is not limited to, any sale, merger, or assignment, in whole or in part, directly, indirectly, or contingently, of this Agreement or any rights or obligations under it. You have the obligation to notify the Company of a proposed transfer and to request Company approval.
- B. You have an economic interest, as defined in this Agreement and the incorporated Supplement and EA Manual, in your Allstate customer accounts developed under this Agreement. Subject to the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement and the incorporated Supplement and EA Manual, you may transfer your entire economic interest in the business written under this Agreement upon termination of this Agreement by selling the economic interest in the business to an approved buyer. The Company retains the right in its exclusive judgment to approve or disapprove such a transfer. The Company retains the right in its exclusive judgment to approve or disapprove such a transfer. Any failure to disclose and obtain the prior written approval of the Company for any transfer of your interest in this Agreement or any interest in the business under this Agreement shall constitute a breach of this Agreement and cause for termination of this Agreement.
- C. Approval of a proposed transfer of your entire interest in this Agreement will be conditioned upon the termination of this Agreement and the execution of a then current agency agreement by the proposed transferee.
- D. Policies in your account (Section XIII. above) will be transferred to an approved transferee.

XVII. TERMINATION OF AGREEMENT:

- A. This Agreement will be terminated automatically:
 - On the effective date of any transfer of your entire interest in this Agreement, whether approved or not, as described in Section XVI. above;
 - Upon your death or permanent incapacity;
 - 3. Upon your loss of any required agent license; or
 - 4. Upon the surrender of, or the election not to renew, the Company's license to sell insurance in all lines in the state in which your sales location is located or the discontinuation of the sale of insurance in the state.
- B. This Agreement may be terminated:
 - 1. At any time by mutual agreement of the parties in writing;
 - 2. By either party, with or without cause, upon providing ninety (90) days prior written notice to the other, or such greater number of days as is required by law. Once written notice of termination has been given by either party, you will, immediately upon request of the Company, cease to act or to represent yourself in any way as an agent or representative of the Company, but you will receive compensation pursuant to Section XV. from the Company for the period up to and including the specified termination date or
 - 3. Alternatively, by the Company, with cause, immediately upon providing written notice to you. Cause may include, but is not limited to, breach of this Agreement, fraud, forgery, misrepresentation or conviction of a crime. The list of examples of cause just stated shall not be construed to exclude any other possible ground as cause for termination.

XVIII. OBLIGATIONS UPON TERMINATION OF AGREEMENT:

Except as otherwise provided in a subsequent agreement between you and the Company, upon termination of this Agreement, you agree that:

- A. You will not act or represent yourself in any way as an agent or representative of the Company.
- B. You will immediately return all property belonging to the Company, or dispose of it in such manner as the Company specifies.
- C. You will immediately cease to use such telephone numbers referenced in Section IX. above and execute an Order of Transfer of Responsibility for such numbers in your name to the Company or to any party the Company designates, and you will immediately notify the telephone company of any such transfer. You will be responsible for all charges incurred up to the date of execution of the transfer.
- D. For a period of one year following termination, you will not solicit the purchase of products or services in competition with those sold by the Company:
 - With respect to any person, company, or organization to whom you or anyone acting on your behalf sold insurance or other products or services on behalf of the Company and who is a customer of the Company at the time of termination of the Agreement;
 - With respect to any person, company, or organization who is a customer of the Company at the time of termination of this Agreement and whose identity was discovered by you as a result of your status as a Company agent or as a result of your access to confidential information of the Company; or

3. From any office or business site located within one mile of the agency sales location, maintained pursuant to Section V. of this Agreement at the time this Agreement is terminated.

In the event that such one year period or one mile distance exceeds the time or distance permitted by any applicable law, such period or distance will be automatically adjusted to the maximum period or distance permitted by such law. If any other provision in this paragraph D. conflicts with any existing law, it will be applied to the extent permitted by such law.

- E. You will immediately cease and desist from any and all use of Company service marks and trade names. You will immediately return to the Company all property in your possession or under your control bearing any Company service mark or trade name, or dispose of it in such manner as the Company specifies.
- F. You recognize that a breach of any of the foregoing provisions will cause irreparable damage to the Company's business and that such damage will be difficult or impossible to measure. You agree that in the event of any such breach, the Company, in addition to such other rights and remedies as it may have, will be immediately entitled to an order granting injunctive relief from any court of competent jurisdiction against any act which would violate any such provision, without the necessity of posting a bond, and you waive any defense to an application for such order, except that the violation did not occur. You agree that the Company will be entitled to an award of reasonable attorneys' fees in the event that it is successful in an application for injunctive relief or in an action based upon breach of the foregoing provisions.
- G. You recognize and acknowledge that each of the foregoing provisions of this Section XVIII. is reasonable and necessary to protect and preserve the legitimate business interests of the Company, its present and potential business activities, and the economic benefits derived therefrom. You recognize and acknowledge that the foregoing provisions will not prevent you from earning a livelihood and are not an undue restraint on you.

- D. You acknowledge that you have read this Allstate R3001S Exclusive Agency Agreement, understand it, and agree to be bound by its terms.
- E. The authority granted to you under this Agreement is nonexclusive. The term "Exclusive" as use in the title of this Agreement refers to the obligations assumed by you under Section I.E.
- F. The descriptive headings of this Agreement are intended for reference only and will not affect the construction or interpretation of this Agreement.
- G. If any provision or part of this Agreement is held invalid for any reason, such invalidity will not affect any other provision or part of this Agreement not held invalid, and such remaining provisions and parts will remain in full force and effect.
- H. The failure of either party to insist upon the performance of any of the terms of this Agreement in any one or more instances will not be construed as a waiver or relinquishment of the future performance of any such term. The obligation of the parties with respect to any such future performance will continue in full force and effect.
- Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed to confer upon any person or entity other than the Company and you any rights under this Agreement.
- J. This Agreement, and the obligations or rights hereunder, shall not be assignable by you, except as provided by Section XVI. The rights and obligations of the parties to this Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Company and its successors and assigns.
- K. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, each of which will be deemed an original.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Company and Agency have caused this Agreement to be executed by their authorized representatives and the parties hereby accept the terms of this Agreement.

Holbrook Small Business Owner Recognized for

Top Sales Achievements

Allstate honors Michael Nocella for outstanding business performance

Holbrook, NY, March XX, 2017 – Allstate agency owners will tell you, they take their jobs seriously. They serve as trusted advisors to the customers in their communities, helping to ensure they have the insurance coverage they need to protect them from the unthinkable. Now, one Holbrook Allstate agency owner was recently recognized for outstanding service and business results.

Allstate Exclusive Agency Owner Michael Nocella was the top Allstate agent in the state for auto and homeowners insurance sales. "It's a tremendous honor to earn these prestigious awards from Allstate," said Don Rubbo, New York Regional Sales Leader. "Michael is fully committed to helping Allstate's customers better understand the risks they may face in their household and provide solutions that help meet those needs. We are extremely proud of Michael and the fact that so many customers trust his agency to help them with their insurance needs."

Nocella Agency is located at 4250 Veterans Memorial Highway in Holbrook and can be reached at 631-981-4900.

March 1, 2018

Michael Nocella 50 Park Avenue Bay Shore, NY 11706

Dear Michael,

This letter is notice that Allstate Insurance Company is terminating your Allstate R3001S Exclusive Agency Agreement ("Agreement") effective immediately. The termination is pursuant to Section XVII-B-3 of the Agreement. Allstate is taking this action for reasons that include providing false information to the Company.

If you have any questions in regard to this termination, please contact this company's representative, HR Sr. Consultant Nancy Feustel at 631-233-6182, Alistate Insurance Company, 878 Veterans Memorial Highway, Suite 400, Hauppauge, New York 11788

The New York Insurance Law prohibits insurers from engaging in redlining practices based upon geographic location of the risk or the producer. If you have reason to believe that we have acted in violation of such law, you may file your complaint with the Department either on its website at http://www.dfs.ny.gov/consumer/fileacomplaint.htm or by writing to the State of New York Department of Financial Services, Consumer Assistance Unit, Financial Frauds and Consumer Protection Division, at either One State Street Plaza, 22nd Fl., New York, NY 10004 or One Commerce Plaza, Albany, NY 12257.

Upon termination of the agreement, your obligations to Alistate are stated in the Agreement. The Agreement requires that you must, among other things:

- Immediately return all property belonging to Allstate including all manuals, equipment, and any materials bearing any Allstate service mark or trade name;
- Immediately cease to use any telephone numbers used to conduct Alistate business from the former sales location; and
- Immediately cease and desist from any and all use of Allstate service marks and trade names.

You may have the option of accepting a termination payment from Allstate or selling the economic interest to an approved buyer as outlined in the Independent Contractor Manual and the Supplement for the R3001S Agreement. If you are eligible for and elect the termination payment option, you will receive such payment calculated and paid in accordance with the Supplement for the R3001S Agreement. Please note the termination payment is conditioned upon, for example, compliance with the confidentiality and non-solicitation provisions that survive the termination of the Agreement and the immediate return of all Allstate property.

If you elect to sell the economic interest in the book of business, Allstate has the absolute right of approval of the buyer. The buyer must meet Allstate's eligibility requirements. If Allstate approves a proposed buyer, the sale must be completed on or before July 1, 2018 and must be effective on the first day of that or any earlier month. If you do not present a buyer or the buyer that you present is not approved, we will process the termination payment as described above.

If you elect, you may sell your interest in any assigned risk policies you may own. After the Agreement terminates, you will continue to receive commissions on existing assigned risk policies processed by Allstate that you retain, if any. Also, if you elect, you may seek to transfer any flood policies you may have produced subject to such rules and policies that are applicable to flood business.

Please contact me with any questions you have regarding the termination process.

Sincerely,

Ankur Chaturvedi

Territorial Sales Leader

Exhibit I (NYSCEF Doc. No. 18) • If the agency owner terminates and elects the Termination Payment Provision (TPP), Allstate makes the termination payments directly to the lender up to the loan balance or the value of the TPP, whichever is reached first. The Allstate Lending ConnectionSM contacts the lender to ascertain the loan balance. The lender may provide written proof that the loan has been satisfied in full and that they are releasing their security interest so that the Company may begin making termination payments to you.

Please note that if you terminate your agreement due to a change in the way your business is legally structured (e.g., sole proprietor to corporation or LLC), you will be required to provide one of the following before signing a new R3001 Agreement:

- Documentation from the lender that they have released their security interest
- A Request for Consent to the Granting of Security Interest executed by the new business entity
- An Agreement to Assume Security Agreements, Assignments of TPP, and Assignments of Commission with each lender (copies of which can be accessed through the Lending Connection webpage)

The Company will not execute an R3001 Agreement with the new business entity unless one of the above documents is provided. You will have to continue operating under the existing R3001 Agreement until the necessary documents are provided.

The Company will not approve an assignment of your entire agreement as security for a loan. Also, please understand that Allstate is never involved in the approval of a loan or a lender — that is between lender and agency owner. Not all lenders may be willing to loan money based on the assignment of a security interest in the economic interest in your book of business.

See the Transfer of Economic Interest section for information regarding your obligations and responsibilities prior to transferring your economic interest.

Transfer of Economic Interest

Before transferring your economic interest in the business or your interest in this Agreement, you have the obligation and sole responsibility to (i) repay any business loan secured by your rights and economic interest in the business, whether with the proceeds from such transfer or not and (ii) disclose to any transferee or purchaser of the business the existence of such business loan, including any lien, security interest, or other encumbrance related to such loan, and, if applicable, your intention to repay such business loan with the proceeds of such sale or transfer.

Termination of R3001 Agreement

Agent Initiated Termination

You must give Allstate ninety (90) days' written notice in order to terminate the R3001 Agreement. You are not required to give ninety (90) days' notice of termination if both Allstate and you mutually agree to a shorter time period.

Automatic Termination

Outlined below are the guidelines for the following situations that result in the automatic termination of the R3001 Agreement:

- 1. Your death or permanent incapacity
- 2. Your loss of any required agent license or agency license
- 3. The dissolution of the agency (A or C Agreement only)
- 4. You, as the Key Person, cease to be employed by the agency (A or C Agreement only)
- 5. The surrender of, or the election not to renew, the Company's license to sell insurance in all lines in the state in which your sales location is located
- You, or your legal representative, may elect to transfer your interest in the book of business serviced by your agency to an approved buyer, or elect to receive a termination payment from the Company, except for a termination pursuant to (5) above, subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the R3001 Agreement, this Manual, and the Supplement. If such election is not made or the economic interest is not transferred to an approved buyer within 90 days of termination of the R3001 Agreement (or such longer period within the Company's discretion), the termination payment will be processed.

See the Transfer of Economic Interest section for information regarding your obligations and responsibilities prior to transferring your economic interest

- The Company will service the book of business for a period of ninety (90) days following termination (or the first day of the following calendar month if the termination date of the R3001 Agreement is other than the last day of the month), unless the Company has agreed to allow one or more Licensed Sales Professionals (LSPs) in your agency to service the business. Although the R3001 Agreement has been terminated, your agent number will remain active until the eligible policies have been transferred to an approved buyer with a new agent number, or until the Company receives written instructions from you, or your legal representative, that the termination payment has been elected. There will be no commissions paid during the service period, other than the final commission check, except as noted below.
 - You, or your legal representative, may make a request to allow the agency location to remain open if your R3001 Agreement is automatically terminated for any of the above reasons, except termination pursuant to (5) above. This request will only be approved in situations where closing the office location would cause significant undue hardship to the business. One or more LSPs will need to be approved to service the business in your agency during the service period.

If approved, the location will be allowed to remain open from the effective date of termination of the R3001 Agreement and for three full calendar months after the first of the month following the date of the termination (service period). Although the R3001 Agreement has been terminated, your agent number will remain active until the eligible policies have been transferred to an approved buyer with a new agent number, or until the Company receives written instructions from you or your legal representative that the termination payment has been elected. However, please note that your appointments with the Company will be terminated immediately. The following must also be agreed to by you, or your legal representative, through a Letter of Understanding prior to allowing the agency location to remain open:

- 1. If the R3001 Agreement is automatically terminated pursuant to (2), (3) and (4) above, you will not be permitted to work in the agency location during this service period
- 2. You, or your legal representative, will be responsible for all expenses to run the agency, including compensation for the LSPs servicing the business during this period
- 3. No commissions will be paid during this period, except that the Company will pay commissions that would have otherwise been generated by the agency to offset the expenses incurred in continuing to service the business on the Company's behalf during the service period

Company Initiated Termination

Outlined below are the guidelines that apply in situations in which the Company has given ninety (90) days' notice of termination, with or without cause, and has requested that you immediately cease representing the Company:

You may elect to transfer your interest in the book of business serviced by your agency to an approved buyer, or to receive a termination payment from the Company, subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the R3001 Agreement, this Manual, and the Supplement. If such election is not made or the economic interest is not transferred to an approved buyer within 90 days of notice of termination of the R3001 Agreement (or such longer period within the Company's discretion), the termination payment will be processed.

See the Transfer of Economic Interest section for information regarding your obligations and responsibilities prior to transferring your economic interest

Note: When the Company has requested that you immediately cease representing the Company, approval of a buyer will also be conditional on the agreement that you will not have any involvement or ownership interest in the buyer's agency following the sale

- The Company will service the book of business until the ninety (90) day notice period expires (or the first day of the following calendar month if the termination date of the R3001 Agreement is other than the last day of the month), unless the Company has agreed to allow one or more Licensed Sales Professionals (LSPs) in your agency to service the business. Although the R3001 Agreement has been terminated, your agent number will remain active until the eligible policies have been transferred to an approved buyer with a new agent number, or until the Company receives written instructions from you that the termination payment has been elected.
- You may make a request to allow the agency location to remain open. This request will only be approved in situations where closing the office location would cause significant undue hardship to the business. One or more LSPs will need to be approved to service the business in your agency during the service period.

If approved, the location will be allowed to remain open from the notice of termination of the R3001 Agreement and for three full calendar months after the first of the month following the date of the termination (service period). Although the R3001 Agreement has been terminated, your agent number will remain active until the eligible policies have been transferred to an approved buyer with a new agent number, or until the Company receives written instructions from you or your legal representative that the termination payment has been elected. However, please note that your appointments with the Company will be terminated immediately. The following must also be agreed to by you through a Letter of Understanding prior to allowing the agency location to remain open:

- 1. You will not be permitted to work in the agency location during this service period
- 2. You will be responsible for all expenses to run the agency, including compensation for the LSPs servicing the business during this period

Outlined below are the guidelines that apply in situations in which the Company has terminated the R3001 Agreement immediately for cause:

You may elect to transfer your interest in the book of business serviced by your agency to an approved buyer, or elect to receive a termination payment from the Company, subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the R3001 Agreement, this Manual, and the Supplement. If such election is not made or the economic interest is not transferred to an approved buyer within 90 days of termination of the R3001 Agreement (or such longer period within the Company's discretion), the termination payment will be processed.

See the Transfer of Economic Interest section for information regarding your obligations and responsibilities prior to transferring your economic interest

Note: If your agreement is terminated immediately for cause, approval of a buyer will also be conditional on the agreement that you will not have any involvement or ownership interest in the buyer's agency following the sale

Re: Michael Nocella Exclusive Agency Termination

PRESERVATION OF EVIDENCE/SPOLIATION NOTICE

Ms. Feustel:

This letter is to notify your office that Mr. Michael Nocella has retained this firm in regards to Allstate's illegal termination of his Exclusive Agency Agreement pursuant to Section XVII B.3.

At this time it requested that your office preserve any and all physical evidence in your possession regarding the investigation and determination made in his case. It is also requested that any and all electronic data be made available for download by this office at an agreed upon date and time.

Please preserve any cell phones, cell phone data, including but not limited to text messages, written materials such as witness statements, log books, agent records, reporting records, investigative notes, emails, internal memos, external memos, any video or audio recordings, as well as any data relating to the termination of Mr. Nocella's agency Agreement.

Please do not dispose of any of this material, as I expect that it will be both discoverable and admissible in any litigation that may arise out of this claim. Spoliation is the destruction or failure to preserve evidence which may be of use in pending or reasonably foreseeable litigation. Traveler's Indemnity Co. v. CC Controlled Combustion, 2003 NY Slip Op. 5134(U). The duty of a party to preserve evidence or face sanctions under CPLR 3126 is well established. See, e.g., MetLife Auto & Home v. Basil Chevrolet, 303 A.D.2d 30 (4th Dep't 2002).

Failure to preserve this material will result in a request for a spoliation instruction at any trial in this matter and may ultimately be considered by a Court as an attempt to destroy evidence.

In addition to the above, it is demanded that your office provide a detailed explanation of the decision to terminate the Agency Agreement for cause. The letter provided to Mr. Nocella does not meet the notice requirement for a termination with cause in New York. It is vague and lacks any clarity to reconcile such a punitive measure undertaken by your office. Please provide same within 5 days of receipt of this letter.

If you are not the appropriate individual that can respond to these demands on behalf of Allstate it is your duty to forward this notice to that individual or individuals promptly, your failure to do so is not a waiver by this office or Mr. Nocella for additional action based upon any intentional efforts to delay Mr. Nocella's action.

As with any conflict, a resolution fair to all sides is the main objective. Mr. Nocella wishes to avoid litigation and continue to own his Agency and operate business. Should your office wish to negotiate a resolution please contact the undersigned immediately. Failure to respond will be construed as your objection to this request and Mr. Nocella has authorized this office to exhaust all legal recourse against your office for imposing and illegal and unconstitutional punishment when Mr. Nocella has done nothing wrong to deserve such.

Please contact me directly at 631-481-9473 should your office wish to discuss.

Sincerely,

Anthony P. DellUniversita

Subject: Exposure Management Areas - Great News!

Exposure Management Areas - Great News! House and Home New Business Guideline Enhancements Coming Monday, July 31st

Effective Monday, July 31st, the following downstate zip codes, which were previously closed to new business, will now be open:

- Babylon 11702
- Bay Shore 11706
- Bellport 11713
- Brightwaters 11718
- Copiague 11726
- Patchogue -- 11772
- Sayville 11782
- West Islip 11795

Although this adjustment will not be programmed in the system until Monday, August 21st, we wanted to make it available to you as soon as possible. As a result, you may take advantage of this opportunity starting this Monday by pushing through any business that receives a reject decision due solely to the zip codes above being closed (all other RMP requirements still need to be met such as CRM score, distance to shore, Amount of Insurance and prior loss history), to be reviewed by the RMBC for issuance.

Important Notes:

Remember to submit all exposure management area new business quotes through the pre-bind process first for review and approval prior to binding the business.

 Include the following remarks to your risk assessment – 'Zip code removed from no write list per 7/28/17 NYPM communication'

Please refer to the updated RMP that will be posted on Monday, July 31st to view these changes.

Thank you, NY Product Management Exhibit M (NYSCEF Doc. No. 22)

Ex-Allstate agent sues for $15M, alleges "hostile takeover" of his business A 28-year all-star agent claims wrongful termination, age bias April 14, 2011 By Darla Mercado, Investment News http://www.investmentnews.com/article/20110414/FREE/110419953

Veteran insurance agent Paul A. Mattus has filed suit against The Allstate Corp., claiming that the carrier had muscled him out of his book of business in order to pass it on to a newer, younger agent.

Mr. Mattus filed suit against the insurer and its subsidiary The Allstate Insurance Co. this Tuesday in the U.S. District Court for the Middle District of Pennsylvania, accusing the carrier of a slate of charges, including breach of contract, fraud and negligent infliction of mental distress.

He seeks $15 million for the value of his insurance practice, Paul A. Mattus Agency & Sons Inc., plus damages and legal fees. The firm sold a variety of Allstate coverage, including life and auto.

The tiff goes back to 2000, when Allstate allegedly terminated the employment contracts of some 6,500 captive agents, offering them an opportunity to become independent contractors if they signed an exclusive agency agreement with the insurer, according to the suit.

Despite becoming an independent contractor for Allstate, Mr. Mattus had been kept from selling competitors' products, according to the complaint.

Mr. Mattus, who had been an agent with Allstate since 1983, claims that the agents were told that if they became independent contractors, they'd have a major stake in their own businesses.

Using his own funds, Mr. Mattus said he created his own insurance agency and covered all of his own business expenses. He also grew his block of business, generating some $4 million in annual insurance premiums and was recognized by Allstate as a "top 10 producer," according to the lawsuit.

Nevertheless, Allstate sent him a termination letter on Jan. 14, 2011, citing Mr. Mattus's "failure to achieve business objectives established by the company," according to the complaint. The letter blocked the agent from engaging in any business and forced him to make a choice between selling the business to an approved buyer or to turn over his business to Allstate, Mr. Mattus alleges.

The agent claims that the insurer had tried to get rid of him when it discovered it could negotiate "more favorable" contractual terms with newer and younger agents.

"Allstate finds the suit to be totally without merit and will present its case in court," said April Eaton, spokeswoman for the insurer.

The insurer "took all steps necessary to remove Mr. Mattus from Allstate in such a way as to retain his sizeable book of business to the benefit of Allstate and a newer, younger agent," according to the complaint. "As an older agent, Mr. Mattus did not fit in with the new, improved Allstate."

Jacqueline Jackson-DeGarcia, Mr. Mattus's attorney, said that she has heard from other agents making similar claims.

"He's not the only agent to whom this has happened," said Ms. Jackson-DeGarcia, a partner at Dilworth Paxson LLP. "We have been contacted by others and will pursue them separately."

Given the differences in the books of business for the agents, as well as the unique attributes of each practice, Ms. Jackson-DeGarcia will likely pursue the other cases separately instead of making them into a class-action suit.

She added that a second related class-action suit is currently pending and that that complaint includes an age discrimination allegation and claims related to employee benefits.

Currently, Paul A. Mattus Agency & Sons Inc. is listed on Allstate's website as being up for sale.

A call to Allstate was not immediately returned.

Allstate Looking to Open 50 New Agencies in Florida

April 7, 2011, www.lnsuranceJournal.com

Allstate Insurance says it wants to open nearly 50 new agency offices in Florida. About half of those openings will be in north Florida, the company said.

"North Florida has shown incredible growth for our agencies," says Bob Jackson, regional sales leader for Allstate's Florida region based in St. Petersburg. "In order to meet the demands of our current and future customers, we've made a decision to expand."

Allstate estimates that each new office will mean multiple job opportunities for licensed staff, perhaps as many as 130 new jobs statewide. The agencies will sell auto, home and life insurance, according to a spokesman.

Allstate began scaling back on its property insurance writings in Florida in 2005, after the severe hurricane season but it has shown renewed interest in Florida business lately. Last spring, it launched an effort to write about 50,000 new multiline policies and began looking into taking out policies from state-backed Citizens Insurance Corp.

In Florida, Allstate operates as Castle Key Insurance Co. ($156 million and surplus and 157,000 policies) and Castle Key Indemnity Co. ($14.1 million in surplus and 76,536 policies).

Allstate changed the names of its Florida subsidiaries to Castle Key in July 2009. The insurer said the name changes were made in order to "better reflect the fact that these property companies are separately capitalized from Allstate Insurance Co."

The company has about 1,000 exclusive agents in the state.

Allstate agents operate as independent contractors selling Allstate policies. They can own their own franchise while drawing on support and resources from the parent company. The company said there is no franchise fee associated with owning an Allstate agency, although candidates need to have $50,000 to $75,000 in liquid capital. The company says that money does not go to Allstate; rather it shows the new agency can pay for the normal operation costs associated with opening and running an agency.

ACES is conducted on a regular basis, performance reports are typically made available on a monthly basis, and it is experience based – meaning we only ask Allstate customers about the services they have actually experienced in the past 12 months.

ACES produces two metrics: the Allstate Promoter Score (APS) and the Agency Experience Score (AES).

- The Allstate Promoter Score (APS) is a net score based on "likelihood to recommend Allstate." This metric is included in "Enterprise Reporting" to business leadership in Home Office and the field. It is focused on measuring and improving the business.
- The Agency Experience Score (AES) is the agency owner metric and is comprised of two elements: the "Net Satisfaction Score" that includes overall agency satisfaction and answers to key agency touchpoint satisfaction questions (such as satisfaction with ease of contact and timely handling of requests) and a "boost" based on offering to review a customer's insurance needs. This metric is included in "Agency Experience Reporting" to agents and field sales leaders.

Office Availability

You have complete and sole discretion in determining how to staff your office and the time in which you are physically present, as long as your agency(ies) is open for business as appropriate in the market to provide a proper level of customer service. This applies to all agency locations including satellite locations.

- Agencies must be open a minimum of forty-four (44) hours per week
- All agencies must be open during the "core" business hours of 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Monday through Friday
- Agencies may choose, at their discretion, to be open additional hours to provide a proper level of customer service
- A person licensed to sell, solicit, and negotiate insurance must be present during all required agency hours. Adequate licensed personnel should be available during business hours to speak with the customer.
- All phones used by an agency to conduct Allstate business must be forwarded to the appropriate 24-hour customer service center outside of an agency's normal business hours and removed from forwarding by 9:00 a.m. the following business day

Knowledge of Company Products and Services

We are in a highly regulated industry and have a responsibility to customers to provide them with accurate information about our products and services.

Accordingly, as requested by the Company, you will be required to demonstrate your knowledge of the Company products you are authorized to sell, as well as of federal, state, or local laws, rules, regulations and ordinances affecting your agency operation. If you are unable to demonstrate your knowledge of any product, the Company reserves the right to deny you the authority, or withdraw your existing authority, to sell that product until you demonstrate such knowledge. The same requirement applies to any Licensed Sales Professionals in your agency.

Additionally, you, or an appropriate representative from your agency, will be required to attend certain educational meetings to learn about changes to our products or services, or about legal compliance issues. Examples of required educational meetings would include:

- Meetings to disseminate information on products, policies, procedures, processes, and programs which are necessary to ensure compliance with state and federal laws and regulations, or to avoid legal liability and loss of goodwill in the marketplace
- Education mandated by the Department of Insurance

From time to time, the Company may also conduct for your convenience meetings concerning sales techniques or other issues. You are invited, but not required, to attend such meetings.

Maintaining a Professional Office Environment

All agencies must maintain a professional office environment that is suitable for conducting Allstate business.

Agency Evaluation

The Company will evaluate your agency's results through Agency Business Objectives (ABO). On a moving 12-month period, a formal consultation will be offered to you if you do not achieve ABO results for 4 out of the past 12 months. If you do not achieve ABO results for 7 out of the past 12 months, a consultation will be offered to you and you will receive a letter from field sales leadership. If you do not achieve ABO results for 10 out of the past 12 months, your agency will be considered for termination.

For R3001 Agencies who have been affiliated with the company for 36 months or more, the following key areas are considered in evaluating your agency's results. These requirement must be met on a monthly basis:

- 4 new business Standard Auto items¹, OR
- Achievement of all Variable Compensation Agency Success Factors
 - Allstate Financial Insurance Policies Sold (IPS)
 - Minimum Staffing

Agencies that achieve Honor Ring or higher at the end of the prior year will be exempt from the program for the following calendar year.

The results for all Established Satellites located in the same state as the primary agency (including stand-alone agencies and Enhanced Satellite Agencies) will be combined with their primary agency beginning with month 37. For Established Satellites that cross state lines, results are combined for any locations that are within the same state.

You will be required to acknowledge your monthly results via ABO Acknowledgement in DASH. Your monthly ABO results are also available in DASH via the ABO Agent Validation Report.

Dear Christina,

We are truly honored to inform you that you have achieved the prestigious recognition of being Committed to Excellence in the 2017 Allstate LSP Commitment to Excellence program!

On behalf of Allstate, the New York Region and Michael Nocella, we extend our congratulations on your achievement! We're recognizing and admiring the hard work and dedication you show each and every day...you are a shining example to your peers throughout our New York Regional Family.

To help celebrate your accomplishment, you are cordially invited to attend a recognition event in your honor. More event details including the date, location will be provided in the next few weeks. Additionally, you'll receive a Commitment to Excellence trophy (if you don't already have one) along with a Regional LSP Winner milestone to commemorate your achievement.

We look forward to recognizing you at our event. Again, congratulations, and we wish you continued success in 2018!

look at the picture -- if you Google this home, if you look at the picture, and -- and the customer indicated he told you it was a two-story house, and that is the information that you initially put in when you first ran the quote. And you put the time (phonetic).

MS. JULIANO: I mean, there's just -there's so many components to this. And, you know, again, I don't remember exactly what was going on, and, you know, at that time why -- why, you know, we were doing that.

I just -- I -- I -- again, I was not purposely trying to do it. I was trying to get the most accurate information on this policy for this customer.

MS. MONTANO: When, ah, you underwent the training with Allstate, you -- you were given training on inputting information into our system, and specifically the CRM system --

MS. JULIANO: Ah, actually, nobody ever talked about CRM system. So I really had -- that's part of the reason that I also didn't call back right away. I really had to think about that.

What -- like what we learned about the CRM. And I don't even remember -- well, I mean, to

1 go through to learn how to quote to get licensed, 2 that wasn't even brought up. That's the first 3 thing. 4 And then when we go through guote optimization, that is just showing you how to get 5 6 the right information as far as what -- you know, what tools to use. Meaning Google Maps and whatever the other 8 9 stuff is that we use. But that was not ever discussed, the CRM. 10 11 And, you know, you're -- I know what 12 you're saying here. And I'm sorry that it may seem 13 like I'm being stupid. But it really was not 14 something that we discussed. 15 And I really didn't think by putting in the inaccurate information, that that was doing 16 something, as you're saying -- as bad as you're 17 18 making it -- me believe it is. 19 And this -- a lot of the information here, 20 especially quoting, is stuff that you learn as you go. It's not something that -- because no two 21 houses and no two people are the same. 22 2.3 So a lot of it is just going -- going as you learn -- I'm sorry -- learning as you go through 24 it. And it's a complete numbers game. 25 explanation as to why his policy looked the way it 1 2 did, the explanation you provided is that there was a system glitch. And that's why his policy had been 3 generated in the manner it had. 5 Did you tell him that the numbers, you know, that you had input into that application, you 6 know, and that formed the basis of that first 7 8 policy, did you tell him it was because of a system 9 qlitch? 10 MS. JULIANO: I honestly don't remember. You know, a lot -- not only am I -- I just want you 11 12 to understand. Not only am I writing policies, but I also do a lot of the customer service in the 13 14 office. So I don't -- you know, a lot of times I 15 don't remember what I had mentioned to people. 16 17 don't -- I honestly don't remember what was -- what was said. 18 19 MS. MONTANO: Okay. Let me explain to you -- when someone says to me "I don't remember," 20 let me explain to you what -- what that means to me. 21 "I don't remember" means "I may have done 22 23 I just don't recall at this time, " as opposed to "No. I -- I did not." 24 25 So knowing that that's what it means to

MICHAEL NOCELLA, being duly sworn, deposes and says:

- 1. I am the individual Plaintiff in this action, and the owner of the Nocella Agency.
- 2. I respectfully submit this supplemental Affidavit in Support of the plaintiffs' application for a temporary restraining order and preliminary injunction.
- I respectfully ask this Honorable Court to annex this portion of my affidavit to my already filed affidavit regarding the facts at issue in this matter.
- I submit this supplemental affidavit because new facts that I believe pertinent to my application have been discovered that were not in my possession at the time the motion was filed.
- On the evening of March 12, 2018, I spoke to my territorial leader, Ankur Chaturvedi, regarding my termination and the sale of my book. The conversation was recording and I obtained the recording the morning of March 14, 2018.
- During this conversation he confirmed my termination payout amount would be $98, 325.74, due to some obscure langue in the supplemental agreement to my exclusive agency agreement.

- 7. He also stated that he did not find there to be any issues with compliance of Allstate policy regarding my agency.
- 8. I have also found an Allstate business for sale that is much less valuable then the Nocella Agency in terms of loss ratio and customer retention. The sales price on $4.6 plus million annual premiums is $1,395,000.00. The listing is annexed hereto as Exhibit A.
- 9. The annual earned premium currently of my book is $5.5 million. As explained in my affidavit, my sales price of $1.6 million will never be possible due to the very low termination payout Allstate has set, of $98,325.74. Please see my affidavit, P. 14-15, ¶ 34-37.
- Plaintiffs respectfully request that this be added to my affidavit in support that efiled on March 14, 2018.

SUPPLEMENTAL AFFIRMATION

ALLSTATE INSURANCE COMPANY,

Defendant,

Anthony P. DellUniversita, an attorney admitted to practice before the Courts of the State of New York, hereby affirms that:

I am the attorney for the Plaintiffs and as such, I am fully familiar with the facts and circumstances of this case.

I submit this affirmation in addition to and supplemented to my already efiled affirmation. I submit this affirmation based on new evidence presented to subsequent to the Court conference on March 14, 2018. I respectfully request this supplemental affirmation be fully incorporated into the plaintiffs' Order to Show Cause.

I listened to an audio recording between the plaintiff, Michael Nocella and his territory leader, Ankur Chartuvedi. During that conversation it is confirmed the payout price does not include any vested business and is $98,325.74.

During the conversation Mr. Chartuvedi states he does not see any non-compliance of Allstate policy by Mr. Nocella and his Agency. Mr. Nocella multiple times states he has not done anything wrong, nor was he aware any Allstate policy was violated. Mr. Chartuvedi does not dispute this assertion in any regard and seems at a loss for words during that portion of the conversation and simply he doesn't know why they decided what they decided.

Mr. Chartuvedi states he is never consulted during the investigation. This is troubling due to the terminal result for Mr. Nocella. Any reasonable person would speak to the territory and field leaders when conducting an investigation of this magnitude.

As an Office of the Court I can represent this was the content of the conversation I listened to.

This office obtaining a certified transcript and will provide same to the Court upon receipt

WHEREFORE, it is respectfully requested that the court grant annex this affirmation to the already existing affirmation in regard to the Order to Show Cause filed on March 14, 2018.
